

The background of the slide is a reproduction of the painting 'Prometheus Bound' by the English Romantic painter John Martin. It depicts the Titan Prometheus, who was punished for stealing fire from the gods, lying on the ground in agony. He is bound to a rock by a heavy chain around his waist. His right arm is outstretched, and his head is thrown back in pain. The scene is set in a dark, cavernous space with a single light source illuminating Prometheus, creating a dramatic contrast with deep shadows. The overall mood is one of suffering and defiance.

Aeschylus Prometheus Bound and the Seven Against Thebes by Aeschylus INTRODUCTION schylus the first of the great Grecian writers of tragedy was born at Eleusis in 525 B C He was the son of Euphorion who was probably a wealthy owner of rich vineyards The poet s early employment was to watch the grapes and protect them from the ravages of men and other animals and it is said that this occupation led to the development of his dramatic genius It is more easy to believe that it was responsible for the development of certain other less admirable qualities of the poet His first appearance as a tragic writer was in 499 B C and in 484 B C he won a prize in the tragic contests He took part in the battle of Marathon in 490 B C and also fought in the battle of Salamis in 480 B C He visited Sicily twice and probably spent some time in that country as the use of many Sicilian words in his later plays would indicate There is a curious story related as to his death which took place at Gela in 456 B C It is said that an eagle mistaking his bald head for a stone dropped a tortoise upon it in order to break its shell and that the blow quite killed schylus Too much reliance should not be placed upon this story We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
