A recent slew of studies and articles has us questioning whether we're getting enough sleep—or even the right kind of sleep. Balancing work, family and a social life can make getting decent sleep hard. Are we thinking too much, or too little, about our sleeping habits?

Are we all obsessed with sleep?

The Royal Society of Open Science recently conducted an experimental psychological study, finding the more you sleep, the more strangers are likely to find you "socially and facially attractive".
