Elizabeth Jennings Dana Greene, 2018-06-12 Elizabeth Jennings was one of the most popular prolific and widely anthologized lyric poets in the second half of the twentieth century This first biography based on extensive archival research and interviews with Jennings s contemporaries integrates her life and work and explores the inward war the poet experienced as a result of her gender religion and mental fragility Originally associated with the Movement Jennings was sui generis believing poetry was communication and communion She wrote of nature friendship childhood religion love and art endearing her to a wide audience Yet lifelong depression unbearable loneliness unrelenting fears poverty and physical illness plagued her These were exacerbated by her gender in a male dominated literary world and an inherited Catholic worldview which initially inculcated guilt and shame However a tenacious drive to be a poet made her the most unconditionally loved writer of her generation Although her claim was that the poem is not the poet her life is tracked in her voluminous published and unpublished poetry and prose The themes of mental illness the importance of place the problems associated with being an unmarried woman artist her relationship with literary mentors and younger poets her non feminist feminism and her marginality and sympathy for the outcast are all explored It was poetry which saved her it helped her push back darkness and discover order in the midst of chaos Poetry was her raison d etre It was her life D. H. Lawrence Paul Poplawski, 1996-06-24 D H Lawrence remains one of the most popular and studied authors of the 20th century This book is a comprehensive but easy to use reference guide to Lawrence s life works and critical reception The volume has been systematically structured to convey a coherent overall sense of Lawrence s achievement and critical reputation but it is also

Marian Poem-Prayers in the Modern Age Jean Ward, 2025-10-16 This book explores a range of twentieth and twenty first century poem prayers directed to or involving Mary In readings of works by T S Eliot David Jones Geoffrey Hill Elizabeth Jennings Hilary Davies Rowan Williams and others Ward traces the resurgence of interest in Mary from the late nineteenth century to the present day By the early twentieth century the once widespread and fervent cult of the Virgin Mary had for more than three hundred years been largely absent from England's religious life Similarly the figure of Mary had almost vanished from English poetry only to return gradually as Marian devotion began to revive in the nineteenth century The perception of this devotion as somehow un-English dominant since the Reformation presented a challenge to poets engaged with the Marian theme in the modern day Marian Poem Prayers in the Modern Age examines how male and female poets from both Roman Catholic and Anglican backgrounds responded to this situation The book also argues that the figure of Mary is a type of John Henry Newman's category of real assent commitment that is not merely intellectual but involves the totality of a person's being in relation to God
