Seventh Century In The West Syrian Chronicles:

The Seventh Century in the West-Syrian Chronicles, 1992 The Seventh Century in the West-Syrian Chronicles Andrew Palmer, Sebastian P. Brock, Robert G. Hoyland, 1993 Part One presents 12 texts written between 636 and 847 including date lists king lists anecdotal chronicles inscriptions and a contemporary memorandum of the Arab conquest Part Two contains a long extract from the Chronicle of AD 1234 with supplementary material from Michael the Syrian Part Three contains the last part of the Apocalypse of Pseudo Methodius and a related text from Edessa Back cover The Last Great War of Antiquity James Howard-Johnston, 2021-05-13 The last and longest war of classical antiquity was fought in the early seventh century It was ideologically charged and fought along the full length of the Persian Roman frontier drawing in all the available resources and great powers of the steppe world The conflict raged on an unprecedented scale and its end brought the classical phase of history to a close Despite all this it has left a conspicuous gap in the history of warfare This book aims to finally fill that gap The war opened in summer 603 when Persian armies launched co ordinated attacks across the Roman frontier Twenty five years later the fighting stopped after the final forlorn counteroffensive thrusts of the Emperor Heraclius into the Persians Mesopotamian heartland James Howard Johnston pieces together the scattered and fragmentary evidence of this period to form a coherent story of the dramatic events as well as an introduction to key players Turks Arabs and Avars as well as Persians and Romans and a tour of the vast lands over which the fighting took place The decisions and actions of individuals particularly Heraclius a general of rare talent and the various immaterial factors affecting morale take centre stage yet due attention is also given to the underlying structures in both belligerent empires and to the Middle East under Persian occupation in the 620s The result is a solidly founded critical history of a conflict of immense significance in the final episode of classical history The Medieval Chronicle X, 2016-05-02 There are several reasons why the chronicle is particularly suited as the topic of a yearbook In the first place there is its ubiquity all over Europe and throughout the Middle Ages chronicles were written both in Latin and in the vernacular and not only in Europe but also in the countries neighbouring on it like those of the Arabic world Secondly all chronicles raise such questions as by whom for whom or for what purpose were they written how do they reconstruct the past what determined the choice of verse or prose or what kind of literary influences are discernable in them Finally many chronicles have been beautifully illuminated and the relation between text and image leads to a wholly different set of questions The yearbook The Medieval Chronicle aims to provide a representative survey of the on going research in the field of chronicle studies illustrated by examples from specific chronicles from a wide variety of countries periods and cultural backgrounds The Medieval Chronicle is published in cooperation with the Medieval Chronicle Society Migration Histories of the Medieval Afroeurasian Transition Zone, 2020-05-06 The transition zone between Africa Asia and Europe was the most important intersection of human mobility in the medieval period The present volume for the first time systematically covers migration histories of the regions between the Mediterranean and Central Asia and between Eastern Europe and the Indian Ocean in the centuries from Late Antiquity up to the early modern era Within this framework specialists from Byzantine Islamic Medieval and African history provide detailed analyses of specific regions and groups of migrants both elites and non elites as well as voluntary and involuntary Thereby also current debates of migration studies are enriched with a new dimension of deep historical time Contributors are Alexander Beihammer Lutz Berger Florin Curta Charalampos Gasparis George Hatke Dirk Hoerder Johannes Koder Johannes Preiser Kapeller Lucian Reinfandt Youval Rotman Yannis Stouraitis Panayiotis Theodoropoulos and Myriam Wissa

Projecting a New Empire Eugenio Garosi, 2022-04-04 Seventh and eighth century papyri inscriptions and coins constitute the main evidence for the rise of Arabic as a hegemonic language emerging from the complex fabric of Graeco Roman Iranian Late Antiquity This volume examines these sources in order to gauge the social ecology of Arabic writing within the broader late antique continuum Starting from the functional interplay of Arabic with other languages in multilingual archives as well as the mediality of practices of public Arabic writing the study correlates the rise of Arabic as an imperial language to social interactions the negotiation between the Arab Muslim imperial elite and non Arabicized regional elites of the early Islamic empire Using layout formulae and technical terminology to trace common patterns and disruptions across sources from the Atlantic to Central Asia the volume illuminates the distinctive formal varieties of official Umayyad and early Abbasid imperial documents compared to informal Arabic writings as well as to neighboring scribal traditions in other languages The volume connects documentary practices to broader imperial policies opening an unprecedented window into the strategies of governance that lay at the core of the early Islamic empire From Al-Andalus to Khurasan Petra Sijpesteijn, 2007 The study of medieval Islamic history has been hindered by the lack of available evidence This is because of its inaccessibility to all but the most specialised scholars in the field Containing papers given at the Documents and the History of the Early Islamic Mediterranean World conference this title looks at the redressing of this problem
