Seventy Light Years A Life In The Movies:

The Dynamic Frame Patrick Keating, 2019-02-19 The camera's movement in a film may seem straightforward or merely technical. Yet skillfully deployed pans, tilts, dollies, cranes, and zooms can express the emotions of a character, convey attitude, and irony, or even challenge an ideological stance. In The Dynamic Frame, Patrick Keating offers an innovative history of the aesthetics of the camera that examines how camera movement shaped the classical Hollywood style. In careful readings of dozens of films, including Sunrise, The Grapes of Wrath, Rear Window, Sunset Boulevard, and Touch of Evil, Keating explores how major figures such as F. W. Murnau, Orson Welles, and Alfred Hitchcock used camera movement to enrich their stories and deepen their themes. Balancing close analysis with a broader poetics of camera movement, Keating uses archival research to chronicle the technological breakthroughs and the changing division of labor that allowed for new possibilities, as well as the shifting political and cultural contexts that inspired filmmakers to use technology in new ways. An original history of film techniques and aesthetics, The Dynamic Frame shows that the classical Hollywood camera moves not to imitate the actions of an omniscient observer but rather to produce the interplay of concealment and revelation that is an essential part of the exchange between film and viewer.

Empire of Dreams Scott Eyman, 2010-09-07 BEST KNOWN AS THE DIRECTOR of such spectacular films as The Ten Commandments and King of Kings, Cecil B. DeMille lived a life as epic as any of his cinematic masterpieces. As a child, DeMille learned the Bible from his father, a theology student and playwright who introduced Cecil and his older brother William to the theater. Tutored by impresario David Belasco, DeMille discovered how audiences responded to showmanship, sets, lights, costumes, etc. He took this knowledge with him to Los Angeles in 1913, where he became one of the movie pioneers in partnership with Jesse Lasky, and Lasky's brother-in-law, Samuel Goldfish, later Goldwyn. Working out of a barn on streets fragrant with orange blossom and pepper trees, the Lasky company turned out a string of successful silents, most of them directed by DeMille, who became one of the biggest names of the silent era. With films such as The Squaw Man, Brewster's Millions, Joan the Woman, and Don't Change Your Husband, he was the creative backbone of what would become Paramount Studios. In 1923, he filmed his first version of The Ten Commandments, and later a second biblical epic, King of Kings, both enormous box office successes. Although his reputation rests largely on the biblical epics, he made DeMille's personal life was no morality tale. He remained married to his wife, Constance, for more than fifty years, but for most of the marriage, he had three mistresses simultaneously, all of whom worked for him. He showed great loyalty to a small group of actors who knew his style, but he also discovered some major stars among them: Gloria Swanson, Claudette Colbert, and later, Charlton Heston. DeMille was one of the few silent era directors who made a completely successful transition to sound. In 1952, he won the Academy Award for Best Picture with The Greatest Show on Earth. When he remade The Ten Commandments in 1956, it was an even bigger hit than the silent version. He could act, too, in Billy Wilder's classic film Sunset Boulevard. DeMille memorably played himself in the 1930s and 1940s. DeMille became a household name thanks to the Lux

Radio Theater which he hosted But after falling out with a union he gave up the program and his politics shifted to the right as he championed loyalty oaths and Sen Joseph McCarthy s anticommunist witch hunts As Scott Eyman brilliantly demonstrates in this superbly researched biography which draws on a massive cache of DeMille family papers not available to previous biographers DeMille was much more than his clich d image A gifted director who worked in many genres a devoted family man and loyal friend with a highly unconventional personal life a pioneering filmmaker DeMille comes alive in these pages a legend whose spectacular career defined an era

Some Kind of Hero Matthew Field,Ajay Chowdhury,2015-10-12 For over 50 years Albert R Broccoli s Eon Productions has navigated the ups and downs of the volatile British film industry enduring both critical wrath and acclaim in equal measure for its now legendary James Bond series Latterly this family run business has been crowned with box office gold and recognised by motion picture academies around the world However it has not always been plain sailing Changing financial regimes forced 007 to relocate to France and Mexico changing fashions and politics led to box office disappointments and changing studio regimes and business disputes all but killed the franchise And the rise of competing action heroes has constantly questioned Bond s place in popular culture But against all odds the filmmakers continue to wring new life from the series and 2012 s Skyfall saw both huge critical and commercial success crowning 007 as the undisputed king of the action genre Some Kind of Hero recounts this remarkable story from its origins in the early 60s right through to the present day and draws on hundreds of unpublished interviews with the cast and crew of this iconic series

Beyond the Epic Gene D. Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908 1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean s body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director s life and career Phillips also explores Lean s lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson s Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean s approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean s successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984

From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry Pictures at a Revolution Mark Harris,2008-02-14 The epic human drama behind the making of the five movies nominated for Best Picture in 1967 Guess Who's Coming to Dinner The Graduate In the Heat of the Night Doctor Doolittle and Bonnie and Clyde and through them the larger story of the cultural revolution that transformed Hollywood and America forever It's the mid 1960s and westerns war movies and blockbuster musicals Mary Poppins The Sound of Music dominate the box office The Hollywood studio system with its cartels of talent and its production code is hanging strong or so it would seem Meanwhile Warren Beatty wonders why his career isn't blooming after the success of his debut in Splendor in the Grass Mike Nichols wonders if he still has a career after breaking up with Elaine May and even though Sidney Poitier has just made history by becoming the first black Best Actor winner he's still feeling completely cut off from opportunities other than the same noble black man role And a young actor named Dustin Hoffman struggles to find any work at all By the Oscar ceremonies of the spring of 1968 when In the Heat of the Night wins the 1967 Academy Award for Best Picture a cultural revolution has hit Hollywood with the force of a tsunami The unprecedented violence and nihilism of fellow nominee Bonnie and Clyde has shocked old guard reviewers but helped catapult Warren Beatty and Faye Dunaway into counterculture stardom and made the movie one of the year's biggest box office successes Just as unprecedented has been the run of nominee The Graduate which launched first time director Mike Nichols into a long and brilliant career in filmmaking to say nothing of what it did for Dustin Hoffman Simon and Garfunkel and a generation of young people who knew that whatever their future was it wasn't in plastics Sidney Poitier has reprised the noble black man role brilliantly not once but twice in Guess Who's Coming to Dinner and In the Heat of the Night movies that showed in different ways both how far America had come on the subject of race in 1967 and how far it still had to go What City of Nets did for Hollywood in the 1940s and Easy Riders Raging Bulls for the 1970s Pictures at a Revolution does for Hollywood and the cultural revolution of the 1960s As we follow the progress of these five movies we see an entire industry change and struggle and collapse and grow we see careers made and ruined studios born and destroyed and the landscape of possibility altered beyond all recognition We see some outsized personalities staking the bets of their lives on a few films that became iconic works that defined the generation and other outsized personalities making equally large wagers that didn't pan out at all The product of extraordinary and unprecedented access to the principals of all five films married to twenty years worth of insight covering the film industry and a bewitching storyteller's gift Mark Harris's Pictures at a Revolution is a bravura accomplishment and a work that feels iconic itself Destination London Tim Bergfelder,Christian Cargnelli,2008-08-01 The legacy of emigrants in the British film industry from the silent film era until after the Second World War has been largely neglected in the scholarly literature Destination London is the first book to redress this imbalance Focusing on areas such as exile genre technological transfer professional training and education cross cultural exchange and representation it begins by mapping the reasons for this neglect before examining the contributions made to British cinema by emigr directors actors screenwriters cinematographers set designers and composers It goes on to assess the cultural and economic contexts of transnational industry collaborations in the 1920s artistic cosmopolitanism in the 1930s and anti Nazi propaganda in the 1940s

Martin Scorsese Vincent LoBrutto, 2007-11-30

Martin Scorsese s current position in the international film community is unrivaled and his name has become synonymous with the highest standards of filmmaking excellence He is widely considered America s best living film director and his Taxi Driver and Raging Bull appear frequently on worldwide surveys of the best films of all time Here in the first biographical account of this artist s life Vincent LoBrutto traces Scorsese s Italian American heritage his strict Catholic upbringing the continuing role of religion in his life and art his obsessive love of cinema history and the powerful impact that the streets of New York City had on his personal life and his professional career Meanwhile the filmmaker s humble soft spoken public persona tells only part of the story and LoBrutto will delve into the other side of a complex and often tortured personality Scorsese s intense passion his private relationships his stormy marriages and his battles with drugs and depression are all chronicled here and in many cases for the first time In addition the book includes an interview with the director as well as filmographies cataloging his work as a director producer actor and presenter As his Best Director award at the 2007 Oscars clearly demonstrated Scorsese has become something like Hollywood royalty in recent years finally enjoying the insider status and favor that eluded him for most of his career But these recent developments aside Scorsese is also notable as a distinctly American type of artist one whose work created in a medium largely controlled by commercialism and marketing has always been unmistakably his own and who thus remains a touchstone of artistic integrity in American cinema In Martin Scorsese A Biography readers can examine not only the work of one of the form s genuine artists but also the forces that have propelled the man behind it
