Faith and Learning David S. Dockery, 2012 Two dozen Christian higher education professionals thoroughly explore the question of the faith s place on the university campus whether in administrative matters the broader academic world or in student life History Maker Dr. Cindy Trimm, 2017-11-21 The world is suffering from a leadership void Nations are shaking culture is shifting and society is restlessly waiting for leaders to arise and take their place in framing a more hopeful future to shape what will become history In History Maker bestselling author and empowerment specialist Dr Cindy Trimm Priest, Prophet, Pilgrim Todd Edmondson, 2014-02-14 Priest Prophet Pilgrim Types and Distortions of Spiritual Vocation in the Fiction of Wendell Berry and Cormac McCarthy provides a reading of characters in the novels and short stories of two important contemporary American writers through the lens of spiritual theology Applying the work of Rowan Williams Nicholas Lash and others Edmondson constructs a theological framework that takes seriously the notion of Christian spirituality not as an invitation to flee from this world but rather as a way of life that seeks reconciliation and joy within this world encountering and embracing God's presence within everyday existence in the contexts of such realities as corporeality communities and the created order as a whole This framework is then applied to the fiction of two American authors Wendell Berry and Cormac McCarthy By comparing these writers the characters they create and the worldviews that shape their narratives Priest Prophet Pilgrim demonstrates in ways that can be applied to other works and other characters how the reading of fiction can inform the pursuit of the spiritual life Becoming a Christian in Christendom Jason A. Mahn, 2016-11-01 How might one live the Christian faith within a culture that idealizes and privileges Christianity while also relativizing it rendering it redundant and innocuous Arguing for a reconceptualization of the theology of the cross and radical communal practices this book brings together two clusters of critics of Christian acculturation and accommodation 1 Lutherans such as Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer who lift up radical discipleship against the propensity toward cheap grace and 2 various Anti Constantinians including neo monastic communities who resist the church's collusion with power politics symbolized by the conversion of Constantine in the early fourth century Drawing on these diverse resources author Jason Mahn explores some pervasive dangers of America's new Christendom its accommodation to an exploitative economy that cheapens the meaning of grace its endorsement of political liberalism within which the church becomes another special interest group its justification of war and other forms of necessary violence and its self-defeating lip service to religious inclusivity Mahn provocatively imagines alternatives to conventional Christianity ones whereby the church embodies an alternative politic where it commits to cruciform non violence appreciates gifts by giving them away and knows its boundaries well enough to learn from those on the other side
