Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines Fenella Cannell, 1999-03-18 What kind of reciprocity exists between unequal partners How can a culture which makes no attempt to defend unchanging traditions be understood as such In the Christian Philippines inequalities global and local are negotiated through idioms of persuasion reluctance and pity Fenella Cannell's study suggests that these are the idioms of a culture which does not need to represent itself as immutable Her account of Philippine spirit mediumship Catholicism transvestite beauty contests and marriage in Bicol calls for a reassessment of our understanding of South East Asian modernity Combining a strong theoretical interest in the anthropology of religion with a broader comparative attention to recent developments in South East Asian studies she offers a powerful alternative to existing interpretations of the relationship between culture and tradition in the region and beyond

Trothen,2006-01-01 Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women Tracy J Trothen looks at the United Church as a uniquely Canadian institution and explores how it has approached gender and sexuality issues She argues that how the Church deals with these issues influences its ability to name violence against women In examining the Church s early approaches to gender and sexuality Tracy J Trothen discovered that the United Church had tended to see certain structures or roles as sacred and others as demonic For example while sex outside marriage was bad or improper sexual expression within marriage was largely deemed as proper or good no matter what manifestation it took This assumption allowed much violence within families and marriages to go unchallenged Trothen uncovers significant shifts in this approach through the examination of such issues as redemptive homes marriage pornography abortion the ordination of women and family Then analyzing three recent case studies she demonstrates the value of women s voices in challenging dominant world views Finally she suggests how the Church s approach to human sexuality and gender has facilitated or obstructed the move to address violence against women The findings in Linking Sexuality and Gender can be applied to faiths outside the United Church and will be important to anyone interested in church and society sexuality gender or the causal dynamics behind one Canadian institution s response to violence against women Tracy J Trothen is an assistant professor of systematic theology and ethics and director of field education at Queen s Theological College Queen s University Canada She was ordained in the United Church of Canada Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women Reading and Writing for Civic Literacy Donald Lazere,2017-07-05 Lazere s book is heaven sent and will provide a crucial link in the chain of understanding how conflicts are structured and most importantly how they can be rationally addressed a healthy antidote to the scepticism that has become so pervasive in academic life Alan Hausman Hunter College This innovative book addresses the need for college students to develop critical reading writing and thinking skills for self defence in the contentious arena of American civic rhetoric In a groundbreaking reconception of composition theory it presents a comprehensive critical perspective on American public discourse and practical methods for its analysis Exercises following the text sections and readings help students understand the ideological positions and rhetorical patterns that underlie opposing viewpoints in current controversies such as the growing inequality of wealth in America and its impact on the finances of college students as expressed in paired sets of readings from the political left and right Widely debated issues of whether objectivity is possible and whether there is a liberal or conservative bias in news and entertainment media as well as in education itself are foregrounded as topics for rhetorical analysis Psychology of Gender Vicki S.
