Sex Politics And Science In The Nineteenth Century Novel Selected Papers From The English Institute:

The Nineteenth-Century Novel and the Pre-Cinematic Imagination Alberto Gabriele, 2024-11-14 This book fills a gap in existing scholarship on the history of the novel in relation to visual culture by discussing the visual fascination that novelists such as Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Honor de Balzac and George Eliot show for several types of pre cinematic spectacle It also identifies a so far neglected aspect of novel theory that nineteenth century authors elaborated by incorporating suggestions from pre cinematic visual spectacles By shedding light on forms of visibility that were not entertained by the dominant aesthetic modes of painting and photography The Nineteenth Century Novel and the Pre Cinematic Imagination argues that the presence of nineteenth century pre cinematic optical illusions in works of fiction redefines the notion of mimesis as animated movement and points to a continuity between pre cinema the literary imagination and the structures of knowledge production of the modern episteme

Tragic Muse Rachel M. Brownstein, 1995 The great nineteenth century tragedienne known simply as Rachel was the first dramatic actress to achieve international fame Composing her own persona with the same brilliance and passion she demonstrated on stage she virtually invented the role of star Rumors of her extravagant life offstage delighted the audiences who flocked to theaters in Boston and Paris London and Moscow to see her perform in the tragedies of Racine and Corneille In Tragic Muse Rachel M Brownstein reveals the life of la grande Rachel and explores at the boundary of biography fiction and cultural history the connections between this self dramatizing woman and her image Born to itinerant Jewish peddlers in 1821 Rachel arrived on the Paris stage at the age of fifteen She became both a symbol of her culture s highest art and a clue to its values and obsessions Fascinated with all things Napoleonic she was the mother of Napoleon s grandson and the lover of many men connected to the emperor Her story the rise from humble beginnings to queen of the French state theater echoes and parodies Napoleon s own She decisively controlled her career her time and finances despite the actions and claims of managers suitors and lovers A woman of exceptional charisma Rachel embodied contradiction and paradox She captured the attention of her time and was memorialized in the works of Matthew Arnold Charlotte Bront George Eliot and Henry James Richly illustrated with portraits photographs and caricatures Tragic Muse combines brilliant literary analysis and exceptional historical research With great skill and acuity Rachel M Brownstein presents Rachel her brief intense life and the image that was both self fashioned and outliving her fashioned by others First published by Knopf 1993 this book will attract a broad audience interested in matters as wide ranging as the construction of character the cult of celebrity women s lives and Jewish history It will also be of enduring interest to readers concerned with nineteenth century French culture history literature theater and Romanticism Tragic Muse won the 1993 George Freedley Award presented by the Theater Library Association

Victorian Detective Fiction and the Nature of Evidence L. Frank, 2003-07-02 Frank investigates an intertextual exchange between nineteenth century historical disciplines philology cosmology geology archaeology and evolutionary biology and the detective fictions of Poe Dickens and Doyle In responding to the writings of figures like Lyell Darwin and E B Taylor detective fiction initiated a transition from scriptural literalism and a prevailing Natural Theology to a naturalistic secular worldview In the process detective fiction sceptically examined both the evidence such disciplines used and their narrative rendering of the world

Prospects for the Study of American Literature Richard Kopley,1997-08 What can there possibly be left to say about This common litany resonant both in and outside of academia reflects a growing sense that the number of subjects and authors appropriate for literary study is rapidly becoming exhausted Take heart admonishes Richard Kopley in this dynamic new anthology for this is decidedly not the case While generations of literary study have unquestionably covered much ground in analyzing canonical writers many aspects of even the most well known authors both their lives and their work remain underexamined Among the authors discussed are T S Eliot Ralph Waldo Emerson William Faulkner Harriet Beecher Stowe Walt Whitman Ernest Hemingway Richard Wright Edith Wharton Nathaniel Hawthorne Zora Neale Hurston Henry James Willa Cather Herman Melville Edgar Allan Poe Henry David Thoreau and Mark Twain

Women and Romance Laurie Langbauer,2018-03-15 According to Laurie Langbauer the notion of romance is vague precisely because it represents the chaotic negative space outside the novel that determines its form Addressing questions of form Langbauer reads novels that explore the interplay between the novel and romance works by Charlotte Lennox Mary Wollstonecraft Charles Dickens George Eliot and George Meredith She considers key issues in feminist debate in particular the relations of feminist to the poststructuralist theories of Lacan Derrida and Foucault In highlighting questions of gender in this way Women and Romance contributes to a major debate between skeptical and materialist points of view among poststructuralist critics

Race, Rape, and Lynching Sandra Gunning,1996-10-10 In the late nineteenth century the stereotype of the black male as sexual beast functioned for white supremacists as an externalized symbol of social chaos against which all whites would unite for the purpose of national renewal The emergence of this stereotype in American culture and literature during and after Reconstruction was related to the growth of white on black violence as white lynch mobs acted in defense of white womanhood the white family and white nationalism In Writing a Red Record Sandra Gunning investigates American literary encounters with the conditions processes and consequences of such violence through the representation of not just the black rapist stereotype but of other crucial stereotypes in mediating moments of white social crisis lascivious black womanhood avenging white masculinity and passive white femininity Gunning argues that these figures together signify the tangle of race and gender representation emerging from turn of the century American literature The book brings together Charles W Chestnutt Kate Chopin Thomas Dixon David Bryant Fulton Pauline Hopkins Mark Twain and Ida B Wells famous infamous or long neglected figures who produced novels essays stories and pamphlets in the volatile period of the 1890s through the early 1900s and who contributed to the continual renegotiation and redefinition of the terms and boundaries of a national dialogue on racial violence

Dickens, Europe and the New Worlds

Anny Sadrin, 2016-07-27 The essays collected in this volume offer fresh readings of Dickens's travelogues and novels often pointing to the many sidedness of his personality The uncommercial traveller emerges as an ecumenical John Bull chary of the alien but greedy of novelty a man whose incursions on well trodden or unfamiliar ground are always journeys into the uncanny Besides dealing with the geography of the novelist's imagination the book explores numerous new worlds such as the inspiring world of Victorian science and Dickens's responses to it or the world of modern literary theory that shapes our own responses to his work
