Sex Roles Population And Development In West Africa:

Sex Roles, Population and Development in West Africa Christine Oppong, 1987 Rural Development International Labour Office, 1991 Entries in English and various other languages Factors Affecting Contraceptive Use in Sub-Saharan Africa National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Working Group on Factors Affecting Contraceptive Use, 1993-02-01 This book discusses current trends in contraceptive use socioeconomic and program variables that affect the demand for and supply of children and the relationship of increased contraceptive use to recent fertility declines Gender, Livelihoods and Migration in Africa Justina Dugbazah, 2012-01-12 This book presents an in depth discussion within diverse contexts and a range of conceptual and methodological offerings which interrogate not only issues concerning the migration discourse but of gender theory and practice as well It explores the gendered patterns of migration including how gender impacts on decisions to migrate in terms of who goes and why Furthermore it examines how this affects the benefits and risks of migration for women and men including impact on gender relations The books empirical analysis is expertly crafted and executed and the author shows an impressive state of the art qualitative research analysis This book provides an invaluable up to date and refreshing discussion of key development issues in sub Saharan Africa The book will be of particular interest to those working in disciplines and interdisciplinary fields such as development studies agricultural studies rural development migration studies gender studies African studies anthropology political science political economy social work economics geography and sociology Polygamy Miriam Koktvedgaard Zeitzen, 2020-06-15 Forms of plural marriage or polygamy are practiced within most of the world s cultures and religions The amazing variation versatility and adaptability of polygamy underscore that it is not just an exotic non Western practice but also exists in modern Western societies Polygamy A Cross cultural Analysis provides an examination and analysis of historical and contemporary polygamy It outlines polygamy s place in anthropological theory and its rich sociocultural diversity in countries ranging from the USA and UK to Malaysia India regions of Africa and Tibet Polygamy also addresses often difficult and controversial issues facing modern polygamists such as prejudice HIV AIDS and women s emancipation Polygamy A Cross cultural Analysis offers an anthropological overview of the fascinating yet often misunderstood institution of polygamy Globalizing the Postcolony Claire H. Griffiths, 2010-12-18 Globalizing the Postcolony Contesting Discourses of Gender and Development in Francophone Africa is a study of development in the former French colonies of West Africa It takes as its starting point the international community s reporting on human and social development and gender in the developing areas which began systematically in 1990 and which has provided a framework for policy making in this field International reports suggest that the francophone African countries have been experiencing low levels of social development throughout the past two decades These levels fall dramatically when the factor of gender is introduced to the point where statistically speaking francophone African women have had less access to social development than any other population in the world This study analyzes current thinking on the challenges facing gender and development in Africa before moving on to examine the historical factors marking the gender and development profile of the francophone West African region Through an analysis of gender politics in the region from pre colonial to postcolonial times the book examines the gradual incursion of exogenous gender policies into the region throughout the 20th century The discussion concludes by arguing that despite the tendency of the international community and their colonial administrative forebears to pursue one size fits all solutions to what they identified as the main development challenges of the day the impact of standardized solutions remains subject to the unique historical and cultural context in which they are implemented Adapting formula driven policies to unique cultural contexts constitutes a major challenge for gender and development politics in the second decade of the new century Meanwhile the book coincides with the introduction of a new international development agenda in Africa articulated around issues of security and globalization While civil unrest continues to destabilize vast regions of the continent making the prospe

Entrepreneurship in Africa Moses E. Ochonu, 2018-02-05 A tapestry of innovation ideas and commerce Africa and its entrepreneurial hubs are deeply connected to those of the past Moses E Ochonu and an international group of contributors explores the lived experiences of African innovators who have created value for themselves and their communities Profiles of vendors farmers craftspeople healers spiritual consultants warriors musicians technological innovators political mobilizers and laborers featured in this volume show African models of entrepreneurship in action As a whole the essays consider the history of entrepreneurship in Africa illustrating its multiple origins and showing how it differs from the Western capitalist experience As they establish historical patterns of business creativity these explorations open new avenues for understanding indigenous enterprise and homegrown commerce and their relationship to social economic and political debates in Africa today

Generations in Africa Erdmute Alber, Sjaak van der Geest, Susan Reynolds Whyte, 2008 Though long neglected in anthropological research the connections and conflicts between generations are at the heart of social processes In this book sixteen studies examine relations between generations of kin and between historical and political generations The topics range from grandmother s cooking migrant remittances youth unemployment teenage pregnancy Valentine s Day and hip hop music to respect religious virtue gerontocracy memory wisdom complaint and the meaning of tradition Together they reinvigorate and expand the old anthropological interest in generation showing how necessary it is to understanding contemporary African societies
