The Art of Classic Planning Nir Haim Buras,2020-01-28 An accomplished architect and urbanist goes back to the roots of what makes cities attractive and livable demonstrating how we can restore function and beauty to our urban spaces for the long term Nearly everything we treasure in the world s most beautiful cities was built over a century ago Cities like Prague Paris and Lisbon draw millions of visitors from around the world because of their exquisite architecture walkable neighborhoods and human scale Yet a great deal of the knowledge and practice behind successful city planning has been abandoned over the last hundred years not because of traffic population growth or other practical hurdles but because of ill considered theories emerging from Modernism and reactions to it The errors of urban design over the last century are too great not to question The solutions being offered today sustainability walkability smart and green technologies hint at what has been lost and what may be regained but they remain piecemeal and superficial In The Art of Classic Planning architect and planner Nir Haim Buras documents and extends the time tested and holistic practices that held sway before the reign of Modernism With hundreds of full color illustrations and photographs that will captivate architects planners administrators and developers The Art of Classic Planning restores and revitalizes the foundations of urban planning Inspired by venerable cities like Kyoto Vienna and Venice and by the great successes of L Enfant s Washington Haussmann s Paris and Burnham s Chicago Buras combines theory and a host of examples to arrive at clear guidelines for best practices in classic planning for today s world The Art of Classic Planning celebrates the enduring principles of urban design and invites us to return to building beautiful cities

Domestic Goods Joy Parr,1999-12-15 Visions of life in the 1950s often spring from the United States supermarkets freeways huge gleaming cars bright new appliances automated households Historian Joy Parr looks beyond the generalizations about the indulgence of this era to find a specifically Canadian consumer culture Focusing on the records left by consumer groups and manufacturers and relying on interviews and letters from many Canadian women who had set up household in the decade after the war she reveals exactly how and why Canadian homemakers distinguished themselves from the consumer frenzy of their southern neighbours Domestic Goods focuses primarily on the design production promotion and consumption of furniture and appliances For Parr such a focus demands an analysis of the intertwining of the political economic and aesthetic Parr examines how the shortage of appliances in the early postwar years was a direct result of government reconstruction policy and how the international style of high modernism reflected the postwar dream of free trade But while manufacturers devised new plans for the consumer depression era frugality and a conscious setting of priorities within the family led potential customers to evade and rework what was offered them eventually influencing the kinds of goods created This book addresses questions such as who designed furniture and appliances and how were these designs arrived at What was the role of consumer groups in influencing manufacturers and government policy Why did women prefer their old wringer washers for over a decade after the automatic washer was brought in In finding the answers the author celebrates and ultimately suggests reclaiming a particularly Canadian way of consuming Karin Bergoo Larsson and the Emergence of Swedish Design Marge

Thorell,2018-11-09 Identified as the first designer of what would become known as Swedish Modern by the National Museum of Women in the Arts in Washington D C Karin Bergoo Larsson 1859 1928 was a mother of eight and wife to Sweden s beloved painter Carl Larsson Herself a well regarded artist she gave up painting when she married at the request of her husband Taking up needles and cloth she then turned a somewhat ugly cottage Lilla Hyttnas in the tiny village of Sundborn Sweden into a designer showcase Inspired by the Swedish countryside she filled the home with handcrafted wall hangings bed coverings tablecloths pillow covers and even furniture of her own design while greatly influencing her husband s work by encouraging him to move away from dark oils to more illuminating and light filled watercolors His paintings of their home made her interior designs famous and her influence continues to inform the concepts of retail giant IKEA Official

Swedish Catalogue Sweden,1915 Holistic Sustainability Through Craft-Design Collaboration Rebecca Reubens,2019-05-07 This book explores the intersection of craft design and sustainability in the developing world It argues that most sustainable design approaches and efforts fall short of implementing holistic sustainability and in order to reach this goal design must be underpinned by alternatives to the mainstream technology intensive industrial design paradigm Renewable materials such as bamboo cork and hemp which are abundantly available in the developing world have the potential to be a viable resource base for sustainable development Current sustainable design initiatives and approaches already recontextualize these materials using industrial techniques and technologies However these efforts fall short of impacting holistic sustainability and tend to focus on the ecological aspect This book offers the development of one alternative to design for holistic sustainability called the Rhizome Approach which draws on existing sustainability praxis and craft Holistic Sustainability Through Craft Design Collaboration includes customizable tools which aim to empower designers to guide and evaluate their own designs Through these tools and the Rhizome Approach in general the book aims to enable designers and students of design to move beyond green and sustainable design to holistic sustainability design Design in Sweden Monica Boman,Bertil Lundgren,1985 Art and Handicraft in the Woman's Building of the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893 Elliott, Maud Howe, 1854- comp,1893 The Jewelers' Circular ,1923
