1565 one of several important yet often overlooked French speaking reformers Born in 1489 near Gap France Farel was an important first generation French speaking Reformer and one of the most influential early leaders of the Reform movement in what is now French speaking Switzerland Educated in Paris he slowly began to question Catholic orthodoxy and by the 1520s was an active protestant preacher resulting in his exile to Switzerland Part of Farel s aggressive work in this area brought him to Geneva several times where in 1535 and 1536 he secured votes in favour of the Reform and later in 1536 persuaded the young theologian John Calvin to stay Farel also penned Geneva s confession of faith of that year and their ecclesiastical articles of the next As such this volume underlines the fact that Calvin entered the reform movement in Geneva in a situation in which Farel had been already deeply involved To better understand that situation the book is divided into two parts The first provides a rich and nuanced portrait of Farel s early thought by way of interpretive essays the second section offers translations of a number of Farel s key texts These translations include some of the first widely accessible full length translations of Farel s work into English Offering both a scholarly overview of Farel and his life and access to his own words this book demonstrates the importance of Farel to the Reformation It will be welcomed not only by scholars engaged in research on French reform movements but also by students of history theology or literature wishing to read some of the earliest theological texts originally written in French A Library of Poetry for Sunday Reading Philip Schaff,Arthur
