Madmans Middle Way Reflections On Reality Of A Tibetan Monk Gendun Chopel:

The Madman's Middle Way Donald S. Lopez Jr., 2008-09-15 Gendun Chopel is considered the most important Tibetan intellectual of the twentieth century His life spanned the two defining moments in modern Tibetan history the entry into Lhasa by British troops in 1904 and by Chinese troops in 1951 Recognized as an incarnate lama while he was a child Gendun Chopel excelled in the traditional monastic curriculum and went on to become expert in fields as diverse as philosophy history linguistics geography and tantric Buddhism Near the end of his life before he was persecuted and imprisoned by the government of the young Dalai Lama he would dictate the Adornment for Nagarjuna's Thought a work on Madhyamaka or Middle Way philosophy It sparked controversy immediately upon its publication and continues to do so today The Madman's Middle Way presents the first English translation of this major Tibetan Buddhist work accompanied by an essay on Gendun Chopel's life liberally interspersed with passages from his writings Donald S Lopez Jr also provides a commentary that sheds light on the doctrinal context of the Adornment and summarizes its key arguments Ultimately Lopez examines the long standing debate over whether Gendun Chopel in fact is the author of the Adornment the heated critical response to the work by Tibetan monks of the Dalai Lama's sect and what the Adornment tells us about Tibetan Buddhism's encounter with modernity The result is an insightful glimpse into a provocative and enigmatic work that will be of great interest to anyone seriously interested in Buddhism or Asian religions

In the Forest of Faded Wisdom Gendun Chopel, 2010-04-15 In a culture where poetry is considered the highest form of human language Gendun Chopel is revered as Tibet's greatest modern poet Born in 1903 as British troops were preparing to invade his homeland Gendun Chopel was identified at an early age as the incarnation of a famous lama and became a Buddhist monk excelling in the debating courtyards of the great monasteries of Tibet At the age of thirty one he gave up his monk's vows and set off for India where he would wander often alone and impoverished for over a decade Returning to Tibet he was arrested by the government of the young Dalai Lama on trumped up charges of treason emerging from prison three years later a broken man He died in 1951 as troops of the People's Liberation Army marched into Lhasa Throughout his life from his childhood to his time in prison Gendun Chopel wrote poetry that conveyed the events of his remarkable life In the Forest of Faded Wisdom is the first comprehensive collection of his oeuvre in any language assembling poems in both the original Tibetan and in English translation A master of many forms of Tibetan verse Gendun Chopel composed heartfelt hymns to the Buddha pithy instructions for the practice of the dharma stirring tributes to the Tibetan warrior kings cynical reflections on the ways of the world and laments of a wanderer forgotten in a foreign land These poems exhibit the technical skill wordplay puns the ability to evoke moods of pathos and irony for which Gendun Chopel was known and reveal the poet to be a consummate craftsman skilled in both Tibetan and Indian poetics With a directness and force often at odds with the conventions of belles lettres this is a poetry that is at once elegant and earthy In the Forest of Faded Wisdom is a remarkable introduction to Tibet's sophisticated poetic tradition and its most intriguing twentieth century writer      Gendun Chopel Donald S. Lopez Jr.,2018-05-29 The most comprehensive work available on the life and writings of Tibet's most famous modern cultural hero Visionary artist poet iconoclast philosopher adventurer master of the arts of love tantric yogin Buddhist saint These are some of the terms that describe Tibet's modern culture hero Gendun Chopel 1903-1951 The life and writings of this sage of the Himalayas mark a key turning point in Tibetan history when twentieth century modernity came crashing into Tibet from British India to the south and from Communist China to the east For the first time the astonishing breadth of his remarkable accomplishments is captured in a single definitive volume Here is an exploration of Gendun Chopel's life as a recognized tulku or incarnation of a previous master becoming a monk and soon surpassing the knowledge of his teachers to his travels and discoveries throughout Tibet India and Sri Lanka His exposure to the wider world brought together his philosophical training artistic virtuosity and meditative experience inspiring an incredible corpus of poetry prose and painting While Gendun Chopel was known by the Tibetan establishment for his vast learning and progressive ideas which eventually landed him in a Lhasa prison he was little appreciated in his lifetime However since his death in 1951 his legacy fame and relevance across the Tibetan cultural landscape and beyond have continued to grow No American scholar knows Gendun Chopel better than Donald Lopez who has written six books about him culminating in this volume Lopez intimately and eloquently carries the reader through the life of Gendun Chopel and sets the stage for his selected writings which present the range and depth of Gendun Chopel's thought The most comprehensive and wide ranging work available on this extraordinary figure this inaugural book of the Lives of the Masters series is an instant classic      Tibetan Buddhist Philosophy of Mind and Nature Douglas S. Duckworth,2019 Tibetan Buddhist Philosophy of Mind and Nature is a philosophical overview of Tibetan Buddhist thought Charting the different ways Buddhist traditions in Tibet configure the relationship between Madhyamaka and Mind Only Duckworth shows how these configurations inform the shape of distinct contemplative practices      Religious Dynamics under the Impact of Imperialism and Colonialism Björn Bentlage, Marion Eggert, Hans Martin Krämer, Stefan Reichmuth,2016-10-11 This sourcebook offers rare insights into a formative period in the modern history of religions Throughout the late 19th and the early 20th centuries when commercial political and cultural contacts intensified worldwide politics and religions became ever more entangled This volume offers a wide range of translated source texts from all over Asia the Middle East and Europe thereby diminishing the difficulty of having to handle the plurality of involved languages and backgrounds The ways in which the original authors some prominent and others little known thought about their own religion its place in the world and its relation to other religions allows for much needed insight into the shared and analogous challenges of an age dominated by imperialism and colonialism      A Buddha Land in This World Lajos Brons,2022 In the early twentieth century Uchiyama Gud Seno o Gir Lin Qiuwu and others advocated a Buddhism that was radical in two respects Firstly they adopted a more or less naturalist stance with respect to Buddhist doctrine and related matters rejecting karma or other supernatural beliefs And secondly they held political and economic views that were radically anti hegemonic anti capitalist and revolutionary Taking the idea of such a radical Buddhism seriously A Buddha Land in This World Philosophy Utopia and Radical Buddhism asks whether it is possible to develop a philosophy that is simultaneously naturalist anti capitalist Buddhist and consistent Rather than a study of radical Buddhism then this book is an attempt to radicalize it The foundations of this radicalized radical Buddhism are provided by a realist interpretation of Yog c ra elucidated and elaborated with some help from thinkers in the broader Tiantai Tendai tradition and American philosophers Donald Davidson and W V O Quine A key implication of this foundation is that only this world and only this life are real from which it follows that if Buddhism aims to alleviate suffering it has to do so in this world and in this life Twentieth century radical Buddhists as well as some engaged Buddhists came to a similar conclusion often expressed in their aim to realize a Buddha land in this world Building on this foundation but also on Mah y na moral philosophy this book argues for an ethics and social philosophy based on a definition of evil as that what is or should be expected to cause death or suffering On that ground capitalism should be rejected indeed but utopianism must be treated with caution as well which raises questions about what it means from a radicalized radical Buddhist perspective to aim for a Buddha land in this world Lajos Brons is a Dutch philosopher and social scientist living in Japan After receiving a PhD from the University of Groningen in the Netherlands for a dissertation on an aspect of the history and philosophy of the social sciences he gradually moved further and further into philosophical territory Currently Lajos is teaching logic ethics and philosophy at a university in Tokyo His research interests are divided over two broad areas in philosophy one is in the overlap of meta ethics and social political philosophy the other is in the intersection of philosophy of language metaphysics and epistemology Research in the former focuses on the relations between death suffering and compassion Research in the latter concerns the relations between language thought and reality and is heavily influenced by the philosophies of Donald Davidson and W V O Quine and by Buddhist philosophy More information about publications and research interests as well as Lajos s blog can be found at www.lajosbrons.net

The Two Truths Debate Sonam Thakchoe, 2016-01-26 All lineages of Tibetan Buddhism today claim allegiance to the philosophy of the Middle Way the exposition of emptiness propounded by the second century Indian master Nagarjuna But not everyone interprets it the same way A major faultline runs through Tibetan Buddhism around the interpretation of what are called the two truths the deceptive truth of conventional appearances and the ultimate truth of emptiness An understanding of this faultline illuminates the beliefs that separate the Gelug descendants of Tsongkhapa from contemporary Dzogchen and Mahamudra adherents The Two Truths Debate digs into the debate of how the two truths are defined and how they are related by looking at two figures one on either side of the faultline and shows how their philosophical positions have dramatic implications for how one approaches Buddhist practice and how one understands enlightenment itself

Religious Epistemology through Schillebeeckx and Tibetan Buddhism Jason M. VonWachenfeldt, 2021-02-11 This study investigates how a comparison between the Catholic theologian Edward Schillebeeckx's controversial reading of Thomist philosophy and the Tibetan Buddhist Gendun Chopel's challenge to the standard Geluk teaching of Tsongkhapa's Madhyamaka philosophy might assist in rethinking conceptions of religious knowledge Utilizing a wide variety of methodical approaches to establish an imaginary dialogue between these two thinkers this comparison remains embodied in the thought and praxis of actual individuals and yet still firmly embedded within the conversations and trajectories of their broader religious traditions
