Mafouz And Idris Studies In Arabic Short Fiction:

Studies in the Short Fiction of Mahfouz and Idris Mona Mikhail, 1992-05 In this comparative approach to the works of two major contemporary Egyptian writers Mona Mikhail identifies existentialism as a major force in their work Her close examination of the images and metaphors that recur in the short fiction of those two writers shows strong affinities with the works of Ernest Hemingway and Albert Camus concentrating on a central preoccupation with the theme of death as a constant in the works of all four writers Mikhail shows how Mafouz and Idris not only successfully incorporate myth and folklore but also draw upon the rich heritage of classical Arabic Literature as a source for their work Arabic Writing Today Mahmoud Manzalaoui, 1968 Naguib Mahfouz, Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr., 2023-07-25 Egypt is the world's oldest continuous country with a recorded past of over 6 000 years Often invaded conquered and occupied by foreign armies Egypt has never lost its identity The Egyptians of today although they have changed their language once and their religion twice descend mainly from the Egyptians who built the Giza Pyramids and the Temple of Karnak who served Alexander the Great and his heirs who submitted to Augustus Caesar and raised much of the grain that fed the Roman Empire who started Christian monasticism and the veneration of the Virgin Mary and who advanced and sustained Muslim learning in what is now the world's oldest functioning university It was and is one of the most important countries in the world Historical Dictionary of Egypt Fifth Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Egypt The Origins of Modern Arabic Fiction Matti Moosa, 1997 Moosa's exhaustive discussion demonstrating the influence of both Western and Islamic ideology and culture presents many works of fiction for the first time to Western students of Arabic literature Reference Guide to Short Fiction Thomas Riggs, 1999 Reference Guide to Short Fiction provides study and commentary on the most instrumental writers of short fiction through the 20th century International in scope this single scholarly volume includes 779 entries on 377 authors and 402 short stories The Aesthetic of Revolution in the Film and Literature of Naguib Mahfouz (1952-1967) Nathaniel Greenberg, 2014-07-02 In the wake of the 1952 Revolution Egypt's future Nobel laureate in literature devoted himself exclusively to writing for film The Aesthetic of Revolution in the Film and Literature of Naguib Mahfouz is the first full length study in English to examine this critical period in the author's career and to contextualize it within the scope of post revolutionary Egyptian politics and culture Before returning to literature in 1959 with his post revolutionary masterpiece Children of the Alley Mahfouz wrote or co wrote some twenty odd scripts many of them among the most successful in Egyptian history He did so at a time when film was the country's second largest export commodity after cotton and the domestic film industry in Egypt the fourth largest in the world Artistically his screenplays channeled the ideology of the revolution often raising themes of oppression and liberation and almost always within a storyline of criminal transgression But as he discussed in later articles and interviews the capacity for film to enumerate the flow of life through montage jump cuts lighting and close ups helped him to develop a darker faster and more complex vision of society This technological revolution was followed by a literary one in the 1960s a time when Mahfouz would generate through a series of short trenchant and often comedic novellas a deeply measured meditation on the experience of collective upheaval and the interpersonal impact of political transformation
