Media Relations and the Modern First Lady Lisa M. Burns, 2020-02-06 Media Relations and the Modern First Lady From Jacqueline Kennedy to Melania Trump examines the communication strategies first ladies and their teams have used to manage press and public interest in their private lives, to promote causes close to their hearts, and to shape their public image. Starting with Jacqueline Kennedy, who was the first to have a staffer with the title press secretary, each chapter explores the relationship between a first lady and the media, the role played by her press secretary and communication staff in cultivating this relationship, and the first lady's media coverage. Contributors explore the following questions: How effective were the media relations and communication strategies of this first lady and her team? What worked and what did not? Was the first lady a communication asset to her husband's administration? And what can we learn from their media relations strategies? Along with contributing to the scholarship on presidential spouses, the contributions to this volume also highlight the important role media relations plays in strategic political communication. Scholars of communication, media studies, gender and women's studies, political science, and public relations will find this book particularly useful.

For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Politics Donna Brazile, Yolanda Caraway, Leah Daughtry, Minyon Moore, Veronica Chambers, 2018-10-02 For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Politics It's a wonderful, necessary book. Hillary Clinton: The four most powerful African American women in politics share the story of their friendship and how it has changed politics in America. The lives of black women in American politics are remarkably absent from the shelves of bookstores and libraries. For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Politics is a sweeping view of American history from the vantage points of four women who have lived and worked behind the scenes in politics for over thirty years: Donna Brazile, Yolanda Caraway, Leah Daughtry, and Minyon Moore, a group of women who call themselves The Colored Girls. Like many people who have spent their careers in public service, they view their lives in four-year waves, where presidential campaigns and elections have been common threads. For most of the Colored Girls, their story starts with Jesse Jackson's first campaign for president. From there, they went on to work on the presidential campaigns of Walter Mondale, Michael Dukakis, Bill Clinton, Al Gore, Barack Obama, and Hillary Rodham Clinton. Over the years, they've filled many roles in the corporate world, on campaigns, in unions, in churches, in their own businesses, and in the White House. Through all of this, they've worked with those who have shaped our country's history. US Presidents such as Bill Clinton and Barack Obama, well known political figures such as Terry McAuliffe and Howard Dean and legendary activists and historical figures such as Jesse Jackson Coretta Scott King and Betty Shabazz For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Politics is filled with personal stories that bring to life heroic figures we all know and introduce us to some of those who've worked behind the scenes but are still hidden Whatever their perch the Colored Girls are always focused on the larger goal of hurrying history so that every American regardless of race gender or religious background can have a seat at the table This is their story Badass
