The Lost Mandate Dan'l C. Markham, 2012-11-27 The Lost Mandate is a clarion call to the Church for Christ followers to man the battle stations to carry out this specific yet neglected commission of Christ as recorded in Luke 14 12 24 This is gut level non glamorous social and spiritual justice of the scary and lowly kind Readers are dared to respond if they are willing to learn of the cost to count the cost and to pay the cost by joining Christ in fulfilling The Lost Mandate in reaching the world s 1 billion people and their families who are affected by disability the largest under reached grouping of people in the world Surprisingly the larger context to this mandate demonstrates how our weaknesses are God s opportunity to bring the Gospel powerfully and effectively to an increasingly skeptical and disbelieving world and how our own religious attitudes stand in the way of ministry to the marginalized Woven into the text are vignettes from the author s incredible life story about the redemption of God through loss pain suffering and weaknesses while reflecting his lifelong passion for evangelism and missions especially to the marginalized those very people to whom Jesus devoted most of His time and attention Author Bio Dan l C Markham has devoted his professional life to planting and growing churches and nonprofit Christian ministries An ordained Baptist minister most recently Dan l served as Director of Partner Engagement at OneHope a worldwide ministry bringing God s word and hope to millions of young people every year Previous to OneHope Dan l served at Joni and Friends from 2001 to 2010 as Director of U S Field Services and then Managing Director of Field Services Rev Markham has served as a nonprofit executive director Washington State county commissioner director at an international Christian relief organization He has authored numerous newspaper and journal articles and was a contributing author for Disability Advocacy Among Religious Organizations Histories and Reflections Markham s first book The Cultic Phenomenon A Revealing Look at Ourselves Lion Publishing covers the misuse and abuse of religious power Dan l and his wife Colette have seven daughters and six grandchildren Dan l loves to laugh make people laugh write and ride the open road on his motorcycle keywords Christianity Religion Disabilities Ministry Handicapped Outreach Missions Christian Christian Mandates Healing

From Tears to Grace Ministries Presents Love Letters to Nourish a Woman's Soul Crystal Lynn Penelton, 2019-07-02 This book is a journey of the trials fires and tribulations women go through daily With the spirit breathed words from God this book was formed Crystal s hope and prayer is that it will comfort you as God has comforted her through the journeys Minister Crystal loves God and loves serving Him for she is his servant

Calm and Quiet My Soul Alyssa Lynn Bell, 2023-10-19 Self care and soul care are trending topics in Christian leadership circles because ministry leaders know they cannot care for their people unless they care for themselves Pastors who are mothers know this too and yet it can feel like just one more task to manage among the many they carry on their schedules and in their hearts The biblical truth is that spiritual rest is a gift from God not an achievement a refreshing reminder for women who hold the dual roles of mom and minister This book invites women leading in these spaces to remember that the God of the Old and New Testaments the one who pours out replenishment for weary hearts is a God who is Mother as well as Father and mothers them with tenderness and strength Starting here in the arms of a mothering God who whispers beloved changes the tone of spiritual care for her from a chore to an oasis of replenishment that grounds her in her identity in Christ as a daughter of Creator God

A Gentler God Doug Frank, 2020-07-09 What is God like Is he the lofty Almighty of conservative religion with power to stop heartbreaking human holocausts and deadly natural disasters but who inexplicably declines to do so Is he the callous Judge offering the faithful a place in his heaven while summarily casting the faithless into everlasting hell Is he the vain King on his throne requiring us to stroke his ego by praising him unceasingly for his awesome power If this is the God we have been taught it is no wonder that many people have come to realize that they do not like let alone trust him The simple certainties of their childhood no longer make sense But the equally assured assertions of today's atheists also leave them cold They want a personal connection with God an honest faith that grows out of their own felt truth and touches them at the deepest levels of their being This book points the way It dismantles the angry punitive God of traditional Protestantism and beckons us toward a kinder more welcoming God This God does not ask us to grit our teeth and try our best to believe Instead this God meets us in our humanity inviting our hearts to respond in genuine trust and love

Mothering and Archaeology Laura Seifert, Suzanne M. Spencer-Wood, 2025-03-21 Mothering and Archaeology brings to light new insights connecting mothering in the past and present by exploring all aspects of this important but frequently under valued and thus neglected subject and is underpinned by feminist theorizing of motherhood and mothering Taking a comprehensive approach this book explores the archaeology of mothers in private and public places in the past and present the patriarchal institution of motherhood versus actual mothering practices the burdens and joys of mothering in archaeology and the second shift often pressed upon women With the inclusion of intersectional research on diverse historic ideologies and practices of motherhood and mothering that varied among classes races and ethnic groups the book also spans a wide range of temporal geographic and cultural differences around the world from Ancient Egypt and Iron Age Europe to Aztec Mexico colonial Yucatan colonial and historic Europe America and Australia and modern archaeologists in America and Europe Going beyond historical practices the book also examines how female identifying archaeologists usually perform a disproportionate amount of mothering labor particularly emotional labor both in their careers and in the home Further it also addresses how becoming a mother affects women's archaeological practices and careers and discusses why women are doing most of the deeply engaged community archaeology with all of its additional relationships and social navigation of emotional labor Bringing together research on motherhood and mothering in the past with women s contemporary experiences of the relationships of mothering to archaeology this book provides new insights to researchers in archaeology anthropology public history and women s studies

Women Preachers and Prophets through Two Millennia of Christianity Beverly Mayne Kienzle, Pamela J. Walker, 2023-09-01 For nearly two millennia despite repeated prohibitions Christian women have preached Some have preached in official settings others have found alternative routes for expression Prophecy teaching writing and song have all filled a broad definition of preaching This anthology with essays by an international group of scholars from several disciplines investigates the diverse voices of Christian women who claimed the authority to preach and prophesy The contributors examine the centuries of arguments grounded in Pauline injunctions against women's public speech and the different ways women from the early years of the church through the twentieth century have nonetheless exercised religious leadership in their communities. Some of them based their authority solely on divine inspiration; others were authorized by independent-minded communities; a few were even recognized by the church hierarchy. With its lively accounts of women preachers and prophets in the Christian tradition, this exceptionally well-documented collection will interest scholars and general readers alike. For nearly two millennia, despite repeated prohibitions, Christian women have preached. Some have preached in official settings; others have found alternative routes for expression. Prophecy, teaching, writing, and song have all filled a broad definition.
