Monastic Landscapes:

Monastic Landscapes James Bond, 2004 This text covers the full impact of medieval monasteries on the local economy from improving agriculture managing woodland draining marshes and planting orchards to founding new towns replanning villages constructing mills and fisheries and mining and quarrying The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt

Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-23 This book traces changing perceptions of Egypt's monastic landscape through an analysis of archaeological and documentary evidence from late antiquity Recent Research on the Late Antique Countryside

William Bowden, Luke Lavan, Carlos Machado, 2004 A complex picture of differing regional trajectories emerges whilst cultural change is everywhere apparent in phenomena such as Christianisation settlement nucleation and fortification BOOK JACKET Scottish Monastic Landscapes

Derek Hall, 2006 The major monastic orders had a significant influence upon the landscape of Scotland Recent research shows just how entrepreneurial they were and how they were responsible for the first real revolutions in agricultural and industrial matters Derek Hall examines the effects that their intensive sheep and cattle farming lead mining salt panning and coal mining have had on the modern landscape and suggests that the eighteenth and nineteenth century industrial revolution was based on the much earlier exploitation of these resources by the Scottish monasteries He also produces new evidence of the extent to which the monasteries were involved in the care for the sick This is an important companion volume to James Bond's award winning Monastic Landscapes which covers England and Wales Ecclesiastical Landscapes in Medieval Europe: An Archaeological Perspective

José Carlos Sánchez-Pardo, Emmet Marron, Maria Crîngaci Țiplic, 2020-07-02 By presenting case studies from across Eastern and Western Medieval Europe this volume aims to open up a Europe wide debate on the variety of relations and contexts between ecclesiastical buildings and their surrounding landscapes between the 5th and 15th centuries AD Reconstructing Past Monastic Life: Volume 2: Diet, Landscape and Monastic Space

Lluís Lloveras, Carme Rissech, Jordi Nadal, Philip Banks, 2025-07-31 Explores the organization of diet food practices water management and spatial use within historical monastic complexes and landscapes Monasticism is a form of religious life in which participants renounce worldly activities to dedicate themselves primarily to spiritual matters living in small communities subject to a set of rules and isolated from the secular world Christian monasticism which originated at the end of the 3rd century in Egypt and North Africa spread to different parts of Europe in the 6th century However it was not until the Middle Ages that monastic communities became one of the most powerful institutions in Europe Monasteries and convents played a very important role not only as centers of spirituality but also as focal points of economic technological and cultural activity This multiplicity of activities carried out alongside their religious social and political roles make monasteries spaces that can be studied from very different perspectives and that unfailingly provide essential information about our history This second of two titles originates from an international conference that took place in Barcelona in January 2024 which sought to examine different aspects related to monastic life in the past and to promote and disseminate the results obtained in the latest studies undertaken within the framework of monastic complexes and their environments These include contributions and multidisciplinary studies from archaeological bioanthropological and or documentary perspectives Specialists from different disciplines present developments on the topic of monasticism from different fields of study such as zooarchaeology bioanthropology palaeopathology archaeology history documentary disciplines archives cultural heritage etc Volume 2 focuses on diet food practices water management and the organization and use of space within monastic complexes and landscapes The

Cambridge History of Medieval Monasticism in the Latin West Alison I. Beach, Isabelle Cochelin, 2020-01-09

Monasticism in all of its variations was a feature of almost every landscape in the medieval West So ubiquitous were religious women and men throughout the Middle Ages that all medievalists encounter monasticism in their intellectual worlds While there is enormous interest in medieval monasticism among Anglophone scholars language is often a barrier to accessing some of the most important and groundbreaking research emerging from Europe The Cambridge History of Medieval Monasticism in the Latin West offers a comprehensive treatment of medieval monasticism from Late Antiquity to the end of the Middle Ages The essays specially commissioned for this volume and written by an international team of scholars with contributors from Australia Belgium Canada England France Germany Italy the Netherlands Spain Switzerland and the United States cover a range of topics and themes and represent the most up to date discoveries on this topic A Cultural

History of Gardens in the Medieval Age Michael Leslie, 2015-04-02 The Middle Ages was a time of great upheaval the period between the seventh and fourteenth centuries saw great social political and economic change The radically distinct cultures of the Christian West Byzantium Persian influenced Islam and al Andalus resulted in different responses to the garden arts of antiquity and different attitudes to the natural world and its artful manipulation Yet these cultures interacted and communicated trading plants myths and texts By the fifteenth century the garden as a cultural phenomenon was immensely sophisticated and a vital element in the way society saw itself and its relation to nature A Cultural History of Gardens in the Medieval Age presents an overview of the period with essays on issues of design types of gardens planting use and reception issues of meaning verbal and visual representation of gardens and the relationship of gardens to the larger landscape

Monastic Women and Secular Economy in Later Medieval Europe, ca. 1200 to 1500 Annalena

Müller, 2024-01-31 This book aims to rewrite the narrative of women and power in medieval society Based on a rich corpus of sources systematically collected for the first time it reveals female monasteries as central and economically able agents in feudal society With a chronological focus on the late Middle Ages this book focuses on four powerful convents located in modern day France Germany and Switzerland Three of these institutions were aristocratic convents founded in the early Middle Ages They were endowed with far ranging feudal prerogatives that were largely but not exclusively derived from landed possessions The fourth convent originated in the thirteenth century and disposed of a primarily monetary economy

Observed from a long term perspective Monastic Women and Secular Economy in Later Medieval Europe reveals strategies of adaptations that allowed these different institutions to weather the significant economic changes of the late Middle Ages Within the context of medieval feudal society these abbesses and prioresses were authoritative figures They ruled over territories dispensed justice appointed priests and even sent soldiers to war Late medieval convents acted as urban landlords and gave credits they were thus major economic players in the rising cities These observations of this monograph will force medievalists to reconsider the traditional image of both the male feudal Middle Ages and medieval monetary economy

Restoration of Multifunctional Cultural Landscapes Stefan Zerbe, 2022-06-27 This book offers perspectives on how to develop a sustainable global balance of urbanization land use intensification land abandonment and multifunctional cultural landscapes The focus is on the latter by describing the large variety of traditional cultural landscapes having evolved through centuries or even millennia by the use of the natural terrestrial and aquatic resources Those cultural landscapes encompass pasture agroforestry terraced irrigation coastal monastic and sacred landscapes as well as lake river and saltscapes The restoration of low input land use systems which often carry a high biodiversity on the species ecosystem and landscape level as well as agrobiodiversity and agrodiversity is outlined The restoration of multifunctional and diverse landscapes however is not only an ecological issue but encompasses many socio economic aspects such as e.g. the revitalization of villages eco tourism healthy food production infrastructure and rural urban partnerships Global environmental problems which are related to urbanization and the intensification of the use of land and water resources are comprehensively outlined Land abandonment which occurs on all continents is qualitatively and quantitatively assessed and the consequences for natural and cultural heritage loss is highlighted With the presentation of current rural development and landscape conservation strategies on the national as well as international level the topic reflects the high significance of environmental policy on the global scale The global implementation of natural and cultural heritage conservation is for example given by the UNESCO World Heritage Sites National Parks Biosphere Reserves Globally Important Agricultural Heritage Sites High Nature Value Farmland and the Satoyama initiative However also the everyday landscapes can contribute to biodiversity and strong sustainability This comprehensive compendium based on about 4 000 references of scientific studies literature reviews project reports and environmental policy papers is thought for all students scholars and stakeholders from multifaceted disciplines interested in multifunctional cultural landscapes and how traditions and innovation on the landscape level can be merged for a sustainable future on our planet Case studies from all over the world are presented which can be used in Higher Education or to demonstrate the numerous approaches of sustainable rural development

The Oxford History of Modern German Theology, Volume 1: 1781-1848 Grant Kaplan, Kevin M. Vander Schel, 2023-05-20 From the closing decades of the eighteenth century German theology has been a major intellectual force within modern western thought closely connected to important developments in idealism romanticism historicism phenomenology and hermeneutics Despite its influential legacy however no recent attempts have sought to offer an overview of its history and development Oxford History of Modern German Theology Vol I 1781 1848 the first of a three volume series provides the most comprehensive multi authored overview of German theology from the period from 1781 1848 Kaplan and Vander Schel cover categories frequently omitted from earlier overviews of the time period such as the place of Judaism in modern German society race and religion and the impact of social history in shaping theological debate Rather than focusing on individual figures alone Oxford History of Modern German Theology Vol I 1781 1848 describes the narrative arc of the period by focusing on broader intellectual and cultural movements ongoing debates and significant events It furthermore provides a historical introduction to each of the chronological subsections that divides the book Moreover unlike previous efforts to introduce this time period and geographical region the volume offers chapters covering such previously neglected topics as religious orders the influence of Romantic art secularism religious freedom and important but overlooked scholarly initiatives such as the Corpus Reformatorum Attention to such matters will make this volume an invaluable repository of scholarship and knowledge and an indispensable reference resource for decades to come Sacred Heritage Roberta

Gilchrist,2020-01-02 Forges innovative connections between monastic archaeology and heritage studies revealing new perspectives on sacred heritage identity medieval healing magic and memory This title is available as Open Access The Twelfth-Century Mosan Reliquary of Pétermonostora Bernát Rácz,2025-03-20 In 2013 two large enamel plaques from a Mosan reliquary were found at P termonostora Hungary Despite the site s destruction by Mongols in 1241 these remains highlight a thriving medieval settlement and offer insights into high medieval East Central Europe s art culture and history

The Oxford Handbook of Christian Monasticism Bernice M. Kaczynski,2020-09-30 The Handbook takes as its subject the complex phenomenon of Christian monasticism It addresses for the first time in one volume the multiple strands of Christian monastic practice Forty four essays consider historical and thematic aspects of the Catholic Eastern Orthodox Oriental Orthodox Protestant and Anglican traditions as well as contemporary new monasticism The essays in the book span a period of nearly two thousand years from late ancient times through the medieval and early modern eras on to the present day Taken together they offer not a narrative survey but rather a map of the vast terrain The intention of the Handbook is to provide a balance of some essential historical coverage with a representative sample of current thinking on monasticism It presents the work of both academic and monastic authors and the essays are best understood as a series of loosely linked episodes forming a long chain of enquiry and allowing for various points of view The authors are a diverse and international group who bring a wide range of critical perspectives to bear on pertinent themes and issues They indicate developing trends in their areas of specialisation The individual contributions and the volume as a whole set out an agenda for the future direction of monastic studies In today s world where there is increasing interest in all world monasticisms where scholars are adopting more capacious global approaches to their investigations and where monks and nuns are casting a fresh eye on their ancient traditions this publication is especially timely Exploring the Future of Christian Monasticisms Greg Peters, 2020-01-15 The institution of monasticism in the Christian Church is in general decline at least in so called first world nations Though there are many reasons for this monastic leaders are confronted by the reality of fewer communities monks and nuns nonetheless At the same time many younger Christians are rediscovering the rich heritage of the monastic tradition Though they themselves might not be called to join a traditional monastery they are eager to appropriate monastic practices in their own lives This had led to a movement known as the new monasticism or secular monasticism Despite lacking a unified vision and any central organization these new secular monastics are attempting in their own ways to carry on the tradition and practices of Christian monasticism As well there is a movement within historical Christian monasteries to pour new wine into old wineskins Traditional forms of monasticism are also generally flourishing in developing nations breathing new life into monasticism This volume looks at the current monastic landscape to assess where monasticism stands and to imagine ways in which it will grow in the future leading not only to a renewed Christian monasticism but to new monasticisms The Oxford Handbook of Early Christian Archaeology David K. Pettegrew, William Rodney Caraher, Thomas W. Davis, 2019 This handbook brings together work by leading scholars of the archaeology of early Christianity in the Mediterranean and surrounding regions The 34 essays to this volume ground the history culture and society of the first seven centuries of Christianity in the latest currents of archaeological method theory and research Gender and Material Culture Roberta Gilchrist, 2013-05-13 Gender and Material Culture is the first complete study in the archaeology of gender exploring the differences between the religious life of men and women Gender in medieval monasticism influenced landscape contexts and strategies of economic management the form and development of buildings and their symbolic and iconographic content Women s religious experience was often poorly documented but their archaeology indicates a shared tradition which was closely linked with and valued by local communities The distinctive patterns observed suggest that gender is essential to archaeological analysis Island Endurance Ryan Lash, 2025 Many look to Ireland s Atlantic islands as timeless places resistant to change Island Endurance offers an alternative perspective examining two neighboring islands where people have cultivated their heritage to confront new challenges and opportunities across centuries To the west Inishark is a landscape of ruins with monuments from a medieval monastery alongside the remnants of a village that endured privation and isolation before its evacuation in 1960 To the east Inishbofin remains home to a small community of nearly 200 that bustles every summer with thousands of visitors drawn by the island s reputation for hospitality and distinctive local heritage Combining archaeological discoveries with folklore and ethnography author Ryan Lash explores how islanders from three different historical eras encountered altered and reimagined traces of the past Fifteen years of fieldwork reconstruct more than a millennium of creativity from the development of pilgrimage traditions at the shrines of monastic saints to the reuse of medieval monuments for local devotions in the 19th and 20th centuries to the repurposing of ruins for managing livestock and guiding tourist trails in the 21st century Attuned to the sensory dynamics and other than human elements of landscapes Lash illustrates the power of quartz pebbles picnics and sheep farming to generate vital perceptions of place time and belonging Islanders have continually and creatively adapted their heritage to foster shared experiences negotiate collaborative relations and sustain livelihoods amid adversity Island Endurance shows us that the illusion of timelessness has always relied on the creativity of heritage

Pilgrimage and Economy in the Ancient Mediterranean Anna Collar, Troels Myrup Kristensen, 2020-07-13 In Pilgrimage and Economy in the Ancient Mediterranean Anna Collar and Troels Myrup Kristensen bring together diverse scholarship to explore the socioeconomic dynamics of ancient Mediterranean pilgrimage from archaic Greece to Late Antiquity the Greek mainland to Egypt and the Near East This broad chronological and geographical canvas demonstrates how our modern concepts of religion and economy were entangled in the ancient world By taking material culture as a starting point the volume examines the ways that landscapes architecture and objects shaped the pilgrim s experiences and the manifold ways in which economy belief and ritual behaviour intertwined specifically through the processes and practices that were part of ancient Mediterranean pilgrimage over the course of more than 1 500 years

Medieval Women Religious, C. 800-c. 1500 Kimm Curran, Janet Burton, 2023 This book addresses varied aspects of the lives and communities of medieval women religious in western Europe Introduction
