Mondo Cane 2:

Perverse Titillation Danny Shipka, 2011-07-25 The exploitation film industry of Italy Spain and France during the height of its popularity from 1960 to 1980 is the focus of this entertaining history With subject matter running the gamut from Italian zombies to Spanish werewolves to French lesbian vampires the shocking and profoundly entertaining motion pictures of the Eurocult genre are discussed from the standpoint of the films and the filmmakers including such internationally celebrated auteurs as Mario Bava Jess Franco Jean Rollin and Paul Naschy The Eurocult phenomenon is also examined in relation to the influences that European culture and environment have had on the world of exploitation cinema The author's insight and expertise contribute to a greater understanding of what made these films special and why they have remained so popular to later generations

Docufictions Gary D. Rhodes, John Parris Springer, 2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane M A S H This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon Topics include the docudrama in early cinema the industrial film as faux documentary the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Darkening the Italian Screen II Eugenio Ercolani, 2023-08-11 This work is a detailed portrait of one of the most important bustling and absurd industries that cinema has ever known colorful essays and nine career spanning interviews with Italian genre directors of the 1970s such as Luigi Cozzi Francesco Barilli Lamberto Bava and more The directors reflect on their successes failures and experiences directing films in the Italian westerns sci fi and horror genres Following the anecdotes gossip and controversies of the industry the essays employ critical analyses to fully unveil the Italian genre cinema as well as its impact on films across the world

horror genre as reflected by his own fandom The Italian Cinema Book Peter Bondanella,2019-07-25 THE ITALIAN CINEMA BOOK is an essential guide to the most important historical aesthetic and cultural aspects of Italian cinema from 1895 to the present day With contributions from 39 leading international scholars the book is structured around six chronologically organised sections THE SILENT ERA 1895 22 THE BIRTH OF THE TALKIES AND THE FASCIST ERA 1922 45 POSTWAR CINEMATIC CULTURE 1945 59 THE GOLDEN AGE OF ITALIAN CINEMA 1960 80 AN AGE OF CRISIS TRANSITION AND CONSOLIDATION 1981 TO THE PRESENT NEW DIRECTIONS IN CRITICAL APPROACHES TO ITALIAN CINEMA Acutely aware of the contemporary rethinking of Italian cinema history Peter Bondanella has brought together a diverse range of essays which represent the cutting edge of Italian film theory and criticism This provocative collection will provide the film student scholar or enthusiast with a comprehensive understanding of the major developments in what might be called twentieth century Italy s greatest and most original art form killing for culture David Kerekes,David Slater,2016-06-03 Unlike images of sex which were clandestine and screened only in private images of death were made public from the onset of cinema The father of the modern age Thomas Edison fed the appetite for this material with staged executions on film Little over a century later the executions are real and the world is aghast at brutalities freely available online at the click of a button Some of these films are created by lone individuals using shaky camera phones Luka Magnotta for instance and the teenagers known as the Dnipropetrovsk maniacs Others are shot on high definition equipment and professionally edited by organized groups such as the militant extremists ISIS KILLING FOR CULTURE explores these images of death and violence and the human obsession with looking and not looking at them Beginning with the mythology of the so called snuff film and its evolution through popular culture this book traces death and the artifice of death in the mondo documentaries that emerged in the 1960s and later the faux snuff pornography that found an audience through Necrobabes and similar websites However it is when videos depicting the murders of Daniel Pearl and Nick Berg surfaced in the 2000s that an era of genuine atrocity commenced one that has irrevocably changed the way in which we function as a society

Latsploitation, Exploitation Cinemas, and Latin America Victoria Ruetalo,Dolores Tierney,2009 Sleaze Artists Jeffrey Sconce,2007-10-24 Collection of essays on the impact that non mainstream and middlebrow film genres have had on popular culture including sexploitation horror cult XXX and indie films Cinema Italiano Howard Hughes,2011-04-30 Italian filmmakers have created some of the most magical and moving violent and controversial films in world cinema During its twentieth century heyday Italy s film industry was second only to Hollywood as a popular film factory exporting cinematic dreams with multinational casts to the world ranging across multiple genres Cinema Italiano is the first book to discuss comprehensively and in depth this Italian cinema both popular and arthouse It is illustrated throughout with rare stills and international posters from this revered era in European cinema and reviews over 350 movies Howard Hughes uncovers this treasure trove of Italian films from Lucino Visconti s epic The Leopard to the cult superhero movie Puma Man Dario Argento

s bloody gialli thrillers and Sergio Leone s spaghetti westerns are explored alongside films of Federico Fellini Pier Paolo Pasolini and Michelangelo Antonioni Chapters discuss the rise and fall of genres such as mythological epics gothic horrors science fiction spy films war movies costume adventures zombie films swashbucklers political cinema and poliziotteschi crime films They also trace the directorial careers of Mario Bava Sergio Corbucci Francesco Rosi Lucio Fulci Duccio Tessari Enzo G Castellari Bernardo Bertolucci and Gillo Pontecorvo

Images of Colonialism and Decolonisation in the Italian Media Paolo Bertella Farnetti, Cecilia Dau Novelli, 2017-11-06 The twentieth century saw a proliferation of media discourses on colonialism and later decolonisation Newspapers periodicals films radio and TV broadcasts contributed to the construction of the image of the African Other across the colonial world In recent years a growing body of literature has explored the role of these media in many colonial societies As regards the Italian context however although several works have been published about the links between colonial culture and national identity none have addressed the specific role of the media and their impact on collective memory or lack thereof This book fills that gap providing a review of images and themes that have surfaced and resurfaced over time The volume is divided into two sections each organised around an underlying theme while the first deals with visual memory and images from the cinema radio television and new media the second addresses the role of the printed press graphic novels and comics photography and trading cards

A Cruel Theatre of Self-Immolations Grzegorz Ziolkowski, 2020-02-13 A Cruel Theatre of Self Immolations investigates contemporary protest self burnings and their echoes across culture The book provides a conceptual frame for the phenomenon and an annotated comprehensive timeline of suicide protests by fire supplemented with notes on artworks inspired by or devoted to individual cases The core of the publication consists of six case studies of these ultimate acts augmented with analyses and interpretations hailing from the visual arts film theatre architecture and literature By examining responses to these events within an interdisciplinary frame Zi kowski highlights the phenomenon s global reach and creates a broad yet in depth exploration of the problems that most often prompt these self burnings such as religious discrimination and harassment war and its horrors the brutality and indoctrination of authoritarian regimes and the apathy they produce as well as the exploitation of the so called subalterns and their exclusion from mainstream economic systems Of interest to scholars from an array of fields from theatre and performance to visual art to religion and politics A Cruel Theatre of Self Immolations offers a unique look at voluntary demonstrative and radical performances of shock and subversion

Race, Nation and Gender in Modern Italy Gaia Giuliani, 2018-05-29 Finalist for the 2019 Edinburgh Gadda Prize This book explores intersectional constructions of race and whiteness in modern and contemporary Italy It contributes to transnational and interdisciplinary reflections on these issues through an analysis of political debates and social practices focusing in particular on visual materials from the unification of Italy 1861 to the present day Giuliani draws attention to rearticulations of the transnationally constructed Italian colonial archive in Italian racialised identity politics and cultural racisms across processes of nation building emigration colonial expansion and the construction of the first post fascist Italian society The author considers the figures of race peopling the Italian colonial archive as composing past and present ideas and representations of white Italianness and racialised gendered Otherness Students and scholars across a range of disciplines including Italian studies political philosophy sociology history visual and cultural studies race and whiteness studies and gender studies will find this book of interest The Horror Film Stephen Prince, 2004 Focusing on recent postmodern examples this is a collection of essays reviewing the history of the horror film and the psychological reasons for its persistent appeal Cinema of Exploration James Leo Cahill, Luca Caminati, 2020-12-29 Drawing together 18 contributions from leading international scholars this book conceptualizes the history and theory of cinema's century long relationship to modes of exploration in its many forms from colonialist expeditions to decolonial radical cinemas to the perceptual voyage of the senses made possible by the cinematic apparatus This is the first anthology dedicated to analysing cinema's relationship to exploration from a global decolonial and ecological perspective Featuring leading scholars working with pathbreaking interdisciplinary methodologies drawing on insights from science and technology studies postcolonial theory indigenous ways of knowing and film theory and history it theorizes not only cinema's implication in imperial conquest but also its cutting edge role in empirical expansion and experiments in sensual and critical perception The collected essays consider filmmaking in cross cultural contexts and films made in or about peoples in South America Asia Africa Indigenous North America as well as polar outer space and underwater exploration with famous figures such as Jacques Yves Cousteau alongside amateur and scientific filmmakers The essays in this collection are ideal for a broad range of scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduate students in cinema and media studies cultural studies and cognate fields Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1966 No Power Without an Image Libby Saxton, 2020-09-25 The first detailed study of what filmic images can tell us about iconic photographs No Power Without an Image reveals the multifaceted connections between seven celebrated photographs of political struggles taken between 1936 and 1968 and cinema in all its forms Moving from the paper cinema of magazines via newsreels and film journals to documentary fiction and experimental films this fascinating book draws on original archival research and multidisciplinary icon theory to explore new ways of thinking about the confluence of still and moving images The Moviegoing Experience, 1968-2001 Richard W. Haines, 2010-06-28 The experience of going to the movies be it a single screen theater twin multiplex or drive in is affected by many different factors that have shifted over the years Just as movies emerged from silent to talking black and white to color there has invariably been change in the way movies are made copied distributed and viewed This change in the moviegoing experience for better or for worse is worth studying This work examines the American moviegoing experience from 1968 to 2001 the way in which movies are made and regulated including the demise of the Production Code and the emergence of the ratings system as well as changes in lighting cinematography and coloring techniques The projection practices of the past and present during and after the presence of the Projectionists Union and the advent of the platter which allowed for automated projection are discussed How home video and cable affected the content of films after the eighties and the history of computerized special effects leading to the development of digital cinema projection are included The work also covers the changing types of venues over the last third of a century and other aspects that affect positively or negatively the entire moviegoing experience Questions of Censorship David Tribe,2023-07-14 First published in 1973 Questions of Censorship offers a lively yet scholarly account of the forces that have exercised censorship down the ages Unlike most other works on this theme which have been confined to media legislation or countries this book essays a broader theme viewing censorship within the total context psychological sociological and political Although attention is focused mainly on censorship in Britain this is set in perspective by comparative accounts of the situation in the United States France and the Soviet Union This book will be a valuable reference work for students of media studies political studies and for general readers Encyclopedia of Censorship Jonathon Green,Nicholas J. Karolides,2014-05-14 Articles examine the history and evolution of censorship presented in A to Z format
