Mondo Fragile Modern Fashion Illustrators From Japan:

Mondo Fragile Delicatessen, 2003 In the West we have all become familiar with the unique Japanese art forms sanga and Anime but very little if anything of the equally original and flourishing field of modern Japanese Fashion Illustration This beautifully designed book provides the perfect introduction to the unique work that is being currently produced The illustrations produced by the 24 artists featured in mondo fragile beautifully encapsulate the tension in Japanese culture between traditional Japanese forms and images and a fascination with European aesthetics from which by a process of mutation and absorption the astonishing fertility and vibrancy of modern Japanese design derives Mondo fragile 2 Delicatessen (Firm), 2005 Second edition in a unique series dedicated to the rich and colorful world of fashion illustration in Japan Again artists featured have been chosen according to emotive rather than logical criteria In essence Mondo fragile 2 Fragile World is a dream come true a massive compilation of images that transcend the differences between Japanese and Western cultures and provide visual insight into the special approach the Japanese take to color These illustrations are greatly influenced by the simplicity of intuition that is a fundamental to Japanese culture It is an influence that gives new meaning to mundane elements in life such as space gesture and routine daily activities and offers great inspiration to all those involved in fashion illustration design or figurative art Just dwelling for a moment upon the most evocative can be a satisfying experience a newfound perception of a shared perhaps fragile world
