Paul Hayes Tucker, 1989 Monet in the '90s, 1989 Monet in the '90s Paul Hayes Tucker, 1989 Monet in the '90s Paul Hayes Tucker, 1990 Impressionists and Politics Philip Nord, 2014-04-04 Impressionists and Politics is an accessible introduction to the current debates about Impressionism Was the artistic movement really radical and innovative Is the term Impressionism itself an adequate characterization of the movement of painters and critics that took the mid nineteenth century Paris art world by storm By providing an historical background and context the book places the Impressionists roots in wider social and economic transformations and explains its militancy both aesthetic and political Impressionists and Politics is a concise history of the movement from its youthful inception in the 1860s through to its final years of recognition and then crisis The Berlin of George Grosz George Grosz, Frank Whitford, Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 1997-01-01 Including 150 work on paper as well as several of the artist s key theoretical essays and letters this text is the catalogue for a 1997 Royal Academy exhibition of the drawings watercolours and prints of George Grosz In Pursuit of the Natural Sign Gayana Jurkevich, 1999 This is the first major study on Azorin to appear in two decades The first part explores parallels between the cultural milieus in France and Spain when both countries lost their colonies in the second half of the nineteenth century The second part studies the fiction and essays of Jose Martinez Ruiz Azorin Illustrated Neo-Impressionist Painters Russell T. Clement, Annick Houzé, 1999-09-30 This reference provides biographical historical and critical information on Neo Impressionist painting and its most significant painters Neo Impressionism also called Divisionism and Pointillism was one of the most innovative and startling late 19th century French avant garde styles Over 2 000 books articles manuscripts and audiovisual materials as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists are cited Also provided are both primary and secondary bibliographies for each artist Secondary bibliographies capture details about each artist s life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography critical reception and interpretation archival sources and more Art scholars will appreciate the comprehensive bibliographic research contained in this one volume Entries on Neo Impressionism in general on exhibitions and the primary and secondary bibliographies of artists follow an introduction about Neo Impressionism and a Neo Impressionism chronology that spans the years 1881 to 1905 An index of art works and an index of personal names complete the volume Neo-Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin-de-Siècle France Robyn Roslak, 2017-07-05 In Neo Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin de Si è France Robyn Roslak examines for the first time the close relationship between neo impressionist landscapes and cityscapes and the anarchist sympathies of the movement s artists She focuses in particular on paintings produced between 1886 and 1905 by

Paul Signac and Maximilien Luce the neo impressionists whose fidelity to anarchism to the art of landscape and to a belief in the social potential of art was strongest Although the neo impressionists are best known for their rational and scientific technique they also heeded the era s call for art surpassing the mundane realities of everyday life By tempering their modern subjects with a decorative style they hoped to lead their viewers toward moral and social improvement Roslak s ground breaking analysis shows how the anarchist theories of Elis Reclus Pierre Kropotkin and Jean Grave both inspired and coincided with these ideals Anarchism attracted the neo impressionists because its standards for social justice were grounded like neo impressionism itself in scientific exactitude and aesthetic idealism Anarchists claimed humanity would reach its highest level of social and moral development only in the presence of a decorative variety of nature and called upon progressive thinkers to help create and maintain such environments The neo impressionists who primarily painted decorative landscapes therefore discovered in anarchism a political theory consistent with their belief that decorative harmony should be the basis for socially responsible art

All About Process Kim Grant, 2017-02-28 In recent years many prominent and successful artists have claimed that their primary concern is not the artwork they produce but the artistic process itself In this volume Kim Grant analyzes this idea and traces its historical roots showing how changing concepts of artistic process have played a dominant role in the development of modern and contemporary art This astute account of the ways in which process has been understood and addressed examines canonical artists such as Monet Cezanne Matisse and De Kooning as well as philosophers and art theorists such as Henri Focillon R G Collingwood and John Dewey Placing process art within a larger historical context Grant looks at the changing relations of the artist s labor to traditional craftsmanship and industrial production the status of art as a commodity the increasing importance of the body and materiality in art making and the nature and significance of the artist s role in modern society In doing so she shows how process is an intrinsic part of aesthetic theory that connects to important contemporary debates about work craft and labor Comprehensive and insightful this synthetic study of process in modern and contemporary art reveals how artists explicit engagement with the concept fits into a broader narrative of the significance of art in the industrial and postindustrial world
