Monet, 1972      Manet: Le Déjeuner Sur L'Herbe: One Hundred Paintings Marco Dolcetta, Paul Metcalfe, Elena

Mazour, 1999 These books invite the reader on a journey through the most famous paintings in the history of art Detailed informative stimulating portraits of the individual artists are documented alongside beautiful glossy illustrations detailed keys to the paintings      Origins of Impressionism Gary Tinterow, Henri Loyrette, 1994 This handsome publication which accompanies a major exhibition at The Metropolitan Museum of Art is a lively and engaging account of the artistic scene in Paris in the 1860s the years that witnessed the beginnings of Impressionism For the first time the interactions and relationships among the group of painters who became known as the Impressionists are examined without the overworn art historical polarities commonly evoked academic versus avant garde classicist versus romantic realist versus impressionist A host of strong personalities contributed to this history and their style evolved into a new way of looking at the world These artists wanted above all to give an impression of truth and to have an impact on or even to shock the public And they wanted to measure up to or surpass their elders This complex and rich environment is presented here the grand old men and the young turks encounter each other the Salon pontificates and the new generation moves fitfully ahead benignly but always with determination Origins of Impressionism gives a day by day year by year study of the genesis of an epoch making style Bibliographies and provenances are provided for each of the almost two hundred works in the exhibition and there is an illustrated chronology With more than two hundred superb colorplates this informative survey is an essential work for both the general reader and the scholar BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Monet's Minutes André Dombrowski, 2023-01-01 A stunning exploration of the vital links between Claude Monet's Impressionism and the time technologies that helped define modernity in the nineteenth century Monet's Minutes is a revelatory account charting the relationship between the works of Claude Monet 1840 1926 founder of French Impressionism and one of the world's best known painters and the modern experience of time Andr Dombrowski illuminates Monet's celebration of instantaneity in the context of the late nineteenth century time technologies that underwrote it Monet's version of Impressionism demonstrated an acute awareness of the particularly modern pressures of time but until now scholars have not examined the histories and technologies of time and timekeeping that informed Impressionism's major stylistic shifts Arguing that the fascination with instantaneity rejected the dulling cultures of newly routinized and standardized time Monet's Minutes traces the evolution of Monet's art to what were then seismic shifts in the shape of time itself In each chapter Dombrowski focuses on the connections between a set of Monet's works and a specific technology or experience of time while providing the voices of period critics responding to Impressionism Grounded in exceptional research and analyses this book offers new interpretations of key works by Monet and a fresh perspective on late nineteenth century

Recovering the Orient Andrew Gerstle, Anthony Milner, 2024-11-01 Much recent writing about Asian societies and Asian Histories adopts a homogenising vision of humanity It views the definition of cultural difference as an Orientalist project serving colonial or neo colonial purposes This unusual collection of essays written by leading specialists in a range of disciplines re appraises and expands the Orientalism debate Several authors examine the ways in which the Asian other acts as a creative stimulus for the European artist composer and playwright The work of Monet Debussy and Brecht for instance is explored to suggest a subtle and complex circulation of idea between the Orient and the West Other essays investigate the scholar s own encounter with the exotic in particular they ask to what extent Western concepts and categories can be used in the analysis of Asian societies and cultures Among the concepts considered are space in Chinese art landscape high art low art and opera in Indonesia and tragedy the book concert music and subjectivity in Japan Furthermore the implications of orality and literacy are examined in the case of Malay society Like discredited orientalists the authors of this volume are in most cases based in the West in universities in Europe United States and Australia but their investigations are not grounded in confident assumptions about Western power and civilisation Recovering the Orient probes the Asian other at a time of conceptual uncertainty when foundational tenets of Western civilisation have come under question      Manet and the Family Romance Nancy Locke, 2001 douard Manet s paintings have long been recognized for being visually compelling and uniquely recalcitrant While critics have noted the presence of family members and intimates in paintings such as Le D jeuner sur l herbe Nancy Locke takes an unprecedented look at the significance of the artist s family relationships for his art Locke argues that a kind of mythology of the family or Freudian family romance frequently structures Manet s compositional decisions and choice of models By looking at the representation of the family as a volatile mechanism for the development of sexuality and of repression conflict and desire Locke brings powerful new interpretations to some of Manet s most complex works Locke considers for example the impact of a father son drama rooted in a closely guarded family secret the adultery of Manet p re and the status of L on Leenhoff Her nuanced exploration of the implications of this story that Manet in fact married his father s mistress makes us look afresh at even well known paintings such as Olympia This book sheds new light on Manet s infamous interest in gypsies street musicians and itinerants as Locke analyzes the activities of Manet s father as a civil judge She also reexamines the close friendship between Manet and the Impressionist painter Berthe Morisot who married Manet's brother Morisot becomes the subject of a series of meditations on the elusiveness of the self the transience of identity and conflicting concerns with appearances and respectability Manet and the Family Romance offers an entirely new set of arguments about the cultural forces that shaped these alluring paintings      Impressionism Robert L. Herbert,1988-01-01 Examines the use of cafes opera houses dance halls theaters racetracks and the seaside in impressionist French paintings      Brush and Pencil ,1903      Masterpieces of European Painting, 1800-1920, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Kathryn Calley Galitz,2007      Whitaker's Little Book of Knowledge Bloomsbury Publishing,2018-05-17 An authoritative quirky trivia book divided into themed chapters Whitaker's Little Book of Knowledge contains thousands of general knowledge gems from everything you learned at school to fascinating lists of contemporary top tens mini biographies of famous artists and writers plus condensed guides to films and works of art and literature In addition there is a light hearted journey down memory lane featuring humorous entries on forgotten treasures from different decades and a stand alone sport chapter with guides to both well known and obscure sports key rules a glossary of terms and short biographies of the world's greatest sporting heroes Facts are both newly researched and drawn from the rich treasure trove of the Whitaker's Almanack archive which dates back to 1868 Whitaker's Little Book of Knowledge is a truly unique ready reference containing fascinating facts for every trivia buff while providing a unique insight into the world from the 19th century through to the present day      L'Impressionnisme Victoria Charles,Klaus Carl,2014-05-10 Je peins ce que je vois et non ce qu'il paraît aux autres de voir D'autres mots que ceux d'Edouard Manet la touche pourtant si différente de celle de Monet ou de Renoir pourraient-ils mieux définir ce que fut l'Impressionnisme Sans doute cette singularité explique-t-elle que peu de temps avant sa mort Claude Monetcrivit Je reste douloureux d'avoir trouvé la cause du nom donné à un groupe dont la plupart n'avait rien d'impressionniste Nathalia Brodskaya dégage ici les contradictions de cette fin du XIXe siècle à travers le paradoxe d'un groupe qui tout en formant un ensemble cohérent favorisa l'affirmation des individualités artistiques Entre l'art académique et le commencement de la peinture moderne non figurative le chemin pour parvenir à la reconnaissance fut long Après avoir analysé les éléments fondateurs du mouvement l'auteur poursuit son étude à travers l'œuvre de chacun des artistes et démontre comment de cette revendication la différence naquit la peinture moderne

The Family in Crisis in Late Nineteenth-Century French Fiction Nicholas White,1999-01-13 The Family in Crisis in Late Nineteenth Century French Fiction first published in 1999 focuses on a key moment in the construction of the modern view of the family in France Nicholas White's analysis of novels by Zola Maupassant Hennique Bourget and Armand Charpentier is fashioned by perspectives on a wide cultural field including legal popular and academic discourses on the family and its discontents His account encourages a close rereading of canonical as well as overlooked texts from fin de siècle France What emerges between the death of Flaubert in 1880 and the publication of Bourget's Un divorce in 1904 is a series of Naturalist and post Naturalist representations of transgressive behaviour in which tales of adultery illegitimacy consanguinity incest and divorce serve to exemplify and to offer a range of nuances on the Third Republic's crisis in what might now be termed family values

Style and Civilization Linda Nochlin, 1991-01-31 Setting Realism in its social and historical context the author discusses the crucial paradox posed by Realist works of art notably in the revolutionary paintings of Courbet the works of Manet Degas and Monet of the Pre Raphaelites and other English American German and Italian Realists

A Reference Grammar of French R. E. Batchelor, M. Chebli-Saadi, 2011-07-14 A Reference Grammar of French is a lively wide ranging and original handbook on the structure of the French language It includes new information on register pronunciation gender number foreign words Latin Arabic English Spanish Italian adjectives and past participles used as nouns texting word order frequency of occurrence of words and usage with all geographical names Examples come not only from France but also from Quebec Belgium and Switzerland Readers will appreciate the initial passages illustrating the grammatical features of a given chapter Also included is a user friendly introduction to the French language from its Latin origins to modern times A full glossary explains any terms that might confuse the less experienced reader and the index leads the student through the detailed labyrinth of grammatical features This handbook will be an invaluable resource for students and teachers who want to perfect their knowledge of all aspects of French grammar

Soil and Stone Frances Fowle, 2017-07-05 The Impressionists are world renowned for their vibrant depictions of the atmospheric effects and shimmering beauty of the French countryside These paintings often produced in Paris found an enthusiastic market in the city The inhabitants of that hub of modernity had an apparently paradoxical interest in the mythologies of rural living As the city became more and more the motive force of social change so the country was understood as the anchor of changelessness and nostalgia The essayists in this volume examine the complex relationship between country and city Their work draws widely on the contemporary culture exploring folklore and children's literature anarchism and urbanism and offers significant new insights into the work of major artists and writers including Courbet Millet Monet Van Gogh and Zola
