Monet, Renoir and the Impressionist Landscape National Gallery of Ireland, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 2002

Monet, Renoir, and the Impressionist Landscape Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, 2000 Impressions of France John House, 1995 Impressions of France traces the development of the French painted landscape from 1860 to 1890 a period of dramatic artistic evolution Taking as his context the Paris Salons the central forum for the display of contemporary art in Paris and the focus for discussions of the state of modern art John House explains how the Impressionist landscapes exhibited there both reflected and forever changed the cultural tastes of the age Monet, Renoir and the Impressionist Landscape Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, 2000 Monet, Renoir, and the impressionist landscape George T. M. Shackelford, Nagoya-Boston museum of fine arts (Nagoya, Japan), 1999 Impressions of Light George T. M. Shackelford, Fronia E. Wissman, 2002 It takes a broad view yet never loses sight of the intricacy and variation that make the landscape so endlessly appealing BOOK JACKET Impressionism John I. Clancy, 2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet C zanne Renoir Degas and van Gogh Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history s most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes Origins of Impressionism Gary Tinterow, Henri Loyrette, 1994 This handsome publication which accompanies a major exhibition at The Metropolitan Museum of Art is a lively and engaging account of the artistic scene in Paris in the 1860s the years that witnessed the beginnings of Impressionism For the first time the interactions and relationships among the group of painters who became known as the Impressionists are examined without the overworn art historical polarities commonly evoked academic versus avant garde classicist versus romantic realist versus impressionist A host of strong personalities contributed to this history and their style evolved into a new way of looking at the world These artists wanted above all to give an impression of truth and to have an impact on or even to shock the public And they wanted to measure up to or surpass their elders This complex and rich environment is presented here the grand old men and the young turks encounter each other the Salon pontificates and the new generation moves fitfully ahead benignly but always with determination Origins of Impressionism gives a day by day year by year study of the genesis of an epoch making style Bibliographies and provenances are provided for each of the almost two hundred works in the exhibition and there is an illustrated chronology With more than two hundred superb colorplates this informative survey is an essential work for both the general reader and the scholar BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Critical Readings in Impressionism and Post-Impressionism Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2023-12-22 The essays in this wide ranging beautifully illustrated volume capture the theoretical range and scholarly rigor of recent criticism that has fundamentally transformed the study of French Impressionist and Post Impressionist art Readers are invited to consider the profound issues and penetrating questions that lie beneath this perennially popular body of work as the contributors examine the art world of late nineteenth century France including detailed looks at Monet Manet Pissarro Degas C zanne Morisot Seurat Van Gogh and Gauguin The authors offer fascinating new perspectives placing the artworks from this period in wider social and historical contexts They explore these painters pictorial and market strategies the critical reception and modern criteria the paintings engendered and the movement s historic role in the formation of an avant garde tradition Their research reflects the wealth of new documents critical approaches and scholarly exhibitions that have fundamentally altered our understanding of Impressionism and Post Impressionism These essays several of which have previously been familiar only to scholars provide instructive models of in depth critical analysis and of the competing art historical methods that have crucially reshaped the field Contributors Carol Armstrong T J Clark Stephen F Eisenman Tamar Garb Nicholas Green Robert L Herbert John House Mary Tompkins Lewis Michel Melot Linda Nochlin Richard Shiff Debora Silverman Paul Tucker Martha Ward

Colours of Impressionism: Masterpieces from the Musée d'Orsay Paul Perrin, Marine Kisiel, 2018-01-31 One of the great innovations of the Impressionists was their radical use of colour their application of strokes of complementary or contrasting hues captured the shifting effects of light and foregrounded the nature of vision Using colour as the lens through which to magnify the movement s intricacies this catalogue sweeps us from Manet s rich blacks through green and blue landscapes of Monet and C zanne to the sensuous pinks of Renoir Along this journey scientific discoveries and emerging definitions of modernity are explored illuminating the profound innovations of the Impressionists and the shifting preconceptions of their art

Impressionists in Winter Charles S. Moffett, Eliza Rathbone, Katherine Rothkopf, Joel Isaacson, 2003-04-19 Impressionists in Winter Effets de Neige presents the first thorough investigation of the subject of Impressionist winter landscape The subject of winter clearly the most inhospitable season for plein air painting provides some of the most exceptional and most spellbindingly beautiful paintings in Impressionism No exhibition and no publications in the literature on Impressionism have been devoted to this theme before While such a thematic approach might seem at first blush a superficial one the subject of this exhibition goes to the heart of one of the central issues of Impressionism a dedication to painting specific effects of weather and light that is unprecedented in the history of art Inspired by Alfred Sisley s Snow at Louveciennes in The Phillips Collection this exhibition of sixty three works presents an opportunity to consider the subject of snow in Impressionist painting in an unprecedented way While anyone might have come across one or two of these exceptional works in various works in this country or abroad it comes as a surprise to most to learn that the Impressionists painted hundreds of paintings of snow or effets de neige as they came to be called Of all the Impressionists three artists especially were drawn to paint effets de neige Claude Monet Alfred Sisley and Camille Pissarro Their shared fascination with these effets led all three to repeatedly seek out opportunities to paint landscapes in snow Yet each brought to the subject a highly individual response that we find reflected in the paintings assembled here In addition to these three artists Pierre Auguste Renoir Gustave Caillebotte and Paul Gauguin also painted snowscapes though far fewer Renoir s characteristic interest in a social gathering of skaters in the Bois de Boulogne Caillebotte s dramatic elevated views over Paris and Gauguin s rare Brittany snowscapes add dimension and contrast to the dedicated pursuit of winter landscape just outside Paris of Monet Sisley and Pissarro The result is a wider range of winter scenes from the bucolic French countryside to ice floes on the Seine from the paths and roads of small villages to the boulevards and rooftops of Paris Their common ground is an obsession with winter light Most of us do not think of Paris or the surrounding countryside covered in snow We do not anticipate a blizzard impeding winter travel to this part of the world nor have we ever seen the Seine frozen solid A very different weather pattern prevailed during the late 19th century Snowfalls blizzards and frost were a fairly common winter occurrence Two of the most severe periods of extended cold since 1840 occurred during the winters of 1879 80 and 1890 91 In order to provide a backdrop of recorded weather conditions of the period we brought together documentation from numerous sources to describe precisely the winter weather during the years covered by this exhibition The weather was at times described as wolf like or Siberian and once was compared to the North Pole These vivid accounts not only have helped us to assign dates to certain undated works but also have provided a context for appreciating the impact of weather conditions on life in France in the late nineteenth century

Impressionism and the Modern Landscape James H. Rubin, 2008-04-03 The examples convey not only these major themes but also the painters belief in the progress of civilization through science and industry The book thus expands the scope of Impressionist celebrations of modernity to include what might be called Impressionism s other landscape and proposes that in the Impressionists effort to forge a modern landscape art those signs of modernity defined their vision most clearly
