Seduction, Sophistry, and the Woman with the Rhetorical Figure Michelle Ballif, 2001 Ballif questions why the profession wants to retain these beliefs in the face of vociferous arguments from new rhetorics that the discipline no longer posits a foundational self or truth and in the face of the poststructuralist critique which has demonstrated that founding truth is always accomplished by first positing and then negating an other As an alternative to this negative and violent rhetorical process Ballif suggests a turn to sophistry as embodied in the figure of Woman one with formation of any new category of identity whether they are deliberately restrictive or intended as a reformation of the old The volume moves as gender construction does across a field of different media novels plays teleplays films official documents political theory and advertisements Four sections REMOLDING WOMAN REBELLING MAN HOMEMADE IDENTITIES and FEMINISMS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE address such subjects as the representation of American women in the 1950s nationalism and respectable sexuality in India women Hollywood cinema and World War II compulsory heterophobia and the televising of AIDS
