The Public Work of Christmas Pamela E. Klassen, Monique Scheer, 2019-06-15 Christmas is not a holiday just for Christians anymore if it ever was Embedded in calendars around the world and long a lucrative merchandising opportunity Christmas enters multicultural multi religious public spaces provoking both festivity and controversy hospitality and hostility The Public Work of Christmas provides a comparative historical and ethnographic perspective on the politics of Christmas in multicultural contexts ranging from a Jewish museum in Berlin to a shopping boulevard in Singapore A seasonal celebration that is at once inclusive and assimilatory Christmas offers a clarifying lens for considering the historical and ongoing intersections of multiculturalism Christianity and the nationalizing and racializing of religion The essays gathered here examine how cathedrals banquets and carols serve as infrastructures of memory that hold up Christmas as a civic yet unavoidably Christian holiday At the same time the authors show how the public work of Christmas depends on cultural forms that mark mask and resist the ongoing power of Christianity in the lives of Christians and non Christians alike Legislated into paid holidays and commodified into marketplaces Christmas has arguably become more cultural than religious making ever wider both its audience and the pool of workers who make it happen every year The Public Work of Christmas articulates a fresh reading of Christmas as fantasy ethos consumable product site of memory and terrain for the revival of exclusionary visions of nation and whiteness at a time of renewed attention to the fragility of belonging in diverse societies Contributors include Herman Bausinger Tbingen Marion Bowman Open Juliane Brauer MPI Berlin Simon Coleman Toronto Yaniv Feller Wesleyan Christian Marchetti Tbingen Helen Mo Toronto Katja Rakow Utrecht Sophie Reimers Berlin Tiina Sepp Tartu and Isaac Weiner Ohio State

An award winning journalist and literacy advocate provides a clear step by step guide to helping your child thrive as a reader and a learner Today s children face intense pressure to meet rising academic standards and prepare for future careers but most fall dangerously short Early struggles with language and literacy often snowball into lasting disadvantages Millions of U S kids don t learn to read well in elementary school driving low adult literacy rates and threatening the nation s economic productivity public health and social equity In Reading for Our Lives journalist Maya Payne Smart shows that the literacy crisis starts at home Too many parents expect schools to unlock their child s reading potential unaware that even the best classroom instruction which most don t get can t make up for weak early preparation or inconsistent support outside of school Smart breaks down the latest research to show parents how to do their part to build essential literacy skills She busts the myth that bedtime stories are parents greatest contribution to kids reading development She advocates instead for weaving a range of simple fun free literacy habits and activities into everyday family life and shows you how to do it With optimism and evidence Reading for Our Lives delivers a clear call to action and a path forward for families schools and communities to beat the literacy crisis together

Women, Religion, and Emotions in Modern Germany and Beyond Lisa Fetheringill Zwicker, Martina Cucchiara, 2025 Analyzes the role of emotions in the religious lives of women from across Germany and Europe from the nineteenth century to the 1970s Scholarship on women and religion has focused primarily on the intersection between women s religious engagement and their emancipation This volume goes beyond that to examine the vital role religion has played in the private and public lives of German and European women Because emotions are central to the expression of religiosity it draws on approaches from the history of emotions to examine how women understood felt and practiced religion in their search for meaning Spanning from the nineteenth century to the 1970s the volume s essays show how religion helped women make sense of their lives It also illuminates the degree to which women used religion and its attendant emotional scripts to shape modern society and how religious discourses in turn shaped women s emotions and comportment in the public sphere The volume builds on recent research that shows that religion especially the religiosity of women remained a pressing public concern in modern Europe From anxieties over the religiosity of Bavarian servants to restrictive norms imposed on Jewish widows from the interfaith commitments of kindergarten teachers to the autobiographical narratives of aspiring Protestant deaconesses from the suffering of stigmatics in Germany and Belgium to Irish women s public narratives of their religiosity this book reveals how women s faith and attendant religious emotions have been central to their public and private lives
