Containing Costs and Improving Productivity in Higher Education Carol S. Hollins,1992

Analyzing Faculty Workload Jon F. Wergin,1994-12-07 The question being asked with increasing regularity is Just what do faculty members do Studies of faculty workload have been commissioned in state after state Taken together the studies indicate that college faculty members are working harder than ever but are probably teaching less and are almost certainly having less contact with students particularly undergraduates This volume of New Directions for Institutional Research explores how the public discourse about faculty work might be improved and suggests how colleges and universities might document that work in a fashion that not only more faithfully describes what faculty do but also allows for reports that are more comprehensive and useful This is the 83rd issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Institutional Research For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page

Using Academic Program Review Robert J. Barak,1995-12-19 Much has been written about proper implementation of program review Extensive advise is available to help those implementing or revitalizing program review processes to avoid common pitfalls and build strengths into the processes A factor for gauging the effectiveness of program review is the extent to which results of program reveiws are used for other meaningful purposes Literature on the use of review results is less prevalent Institutional researchers and others need to know more about program review s role in program improvement and institutional decision making Questions that need to be answered include the following Are the program review reports and recommendations an integral part of the institution s budget process What is the role of academic program review in strategic planning Can the program review process be linked to the institution s outcomes assessment process The purpose of this volume is to provide planners and institutional researchers with information on the uses of program review results in colleges and universities This is the 86th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Institutional Research For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page
