Monitoring For Government Agencies:

Monitoring for Government Agencies John D. Waller, 1976 Abstract Telephone Monitoring Practices by Federal Agencies United States. Congress. House. Government Operations Committee, 1974 Workways of Governance Roger H. Davidson, 2004-05-13 A Brookings Institution Press and Governance Institute publication The war on terrorism has raised profound questions of domestic governance not primarily about power or policy but about the capacities of government agencies their personnel procedures work habits and styles and ability to interface with each other These are the workways of governance As the aftermath of the tragic events of September 11 2001 made very clear shortcomings and defects in the workways of governance are all too often manifested only in times of crisis or scandal after the damage is done How much better it would be to design for government a version of the periodic physical examination where tests of various types together with the physician's observations and the patient's own testimony combine to help define the patient's status and prospects The Workways of Governance project sponsored by the Governance Institute was begun in 1997 in response to a growing concern that institutions of national government have evolved into structures and developed procedures and customs that constrain their workers and hamper their collective effectiveness A unique feature of the project is the development of a periodic review of the quality of institutional life and work in government Guidelines for evaluating and monitoring governmental entities will be established and implemented annually or biennially The resulting reports consist of both objectively measured data and subjective evaluation with the ultimate aim of generating positive change toward improving the capacity of government In this first volume of analysis arising from the Workways of Governance project contributors apply these general guidelines to evaluate the leading institutions of the federal government as listed in the first three articles of the Constitution the House of Representatives the Senate the presidency focusing on White House organization and staffing the executive branch focusing on the civil service and the federal judiciary Availability of Information from Federal Departments and Agencies (telephone Monitoring - Third Review) United States. Congress. House. Government Operations, 1970 Occupational Safety and Health : Improvements Needed in OSHA's Monitoring of Federal Agencies' Programs United States. General Accounting Office, 1992 Invasions of Privacy (government Agencies) United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, 1965 Proceedings of the Third National Citizens' Volunteer Water Monitoring Conference Jacqueline Doherty, 1992 Assessing the Sustainability and Biological Integrity of Water Resources Using Fish Communities Thomas P. Simon, 2020-08-26 This book examines the application of fish community characteristics to evaluate the sustainability and biological integrity of freshwaters Topics include perspectives on use of fish communities as environmental indicators in program development collaboration and partnership forming influence of specific taxa on assessment of the IBI regional applications for areas where the IBI had not previously been developed and specific applications of the IBI developed for coldwater streams inland lakes Great Lakes reservoirs and tailwaters National Water Quality Inventory, 2000 Annual Report of the Federal Communications Commission to the Congress of the United States for the Fiscal Year ..., 1950 US National Cyber Security Strategy and Programs Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP, Inc., 2013-07-01 US National Cyber Security Strategy and Programs Handbook Strategic Information and Developments Methods to Monitor the Human Right to Adequate Food: Making the case for rights-focused and rights-based monitoring, 2008 Monitoring Performance in the Public Sector John Winston Mayne, 2017-07-05 A host of promising public sector reform efforts are underway throughout the world In governments challenged by budget deficits and declining public trust these reform efforts seek to improve policy decisions and public management Along the way program efficiency and effectiveness help rebuild public confidence in government Whether through regular measurement of program inputs activities and outcomes or through episodic one shot studies performance monitoring plays a central role in the most important current reform efforts Monitoring Performance in the Public Sector now available in paperback is based on experiences derived from comparative analysis in different countries It explains why there is interest in performance monitoring in a given setting why it has failed or created uncertainties and identifies criteria for improving its design and use One of the challenges this book offers is the need to consider dimensions of performance beyond the traditional ones of economy efficiency and effectiveness With an increasingly diverse interdependent and uncertain public sector environment for some stakeholders meeting objectives fixed some time ago may not be as important as the capacity to adapt to current and future change In this vein the contributors address a number of themes the critical importance of organizational support for performance monitoring and making it consistent with the organizational culture the need for active and effective leadership in defining criteria and implementing practical performance monitoring the value of linking ongoing measurement with more than the traditional strictly quantitative aspects of public sector performance As we gain experience with performance monitoring and its uses such systems should become more cost effective over time This book will be of deep interest to public managers government officials economists and organization theorists and useful in courses on p Towards wellbeing: monitoring poverty in Malinau, Indonesia Moeliono, M., Limberg, G., Gonner, C., Wollenberg, E., Iwan, R., 2007 Transparency and Integrity in Corporate Monitoring United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Commercial and Administrative Law, 2010 Planning Workshop to Develop Recommendations for a Ground-water Monitoring Strategy, 1985 Monitoring for Forest Management Unit Scale Sustainability Pamela A. Wright, 2002 Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Reports United States. Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 2002 Disability, Rights Monitoring, and Social Change Marcia H. Rioux, Paula C. Pinto, Gillian Parekh, 2015 The 2006 United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities has provided a significant catalyst and a legal mandate for disability rights monitoring and discussions on disability rights are breaking new ground across disciplines Disability Rights Monitoring and Social Change is an important and timely collection that explores and challenges the ways in which disability rights are monitored The contributors to this edited volume range from grassroots activists to international scholars and United Nations advisors The chapters address the current theoretical methodological and practical issues surrounding disability rights monitoring and offer a detailed look at law and policy reforms best practices and holistic methods This unique compilation crosses the divide between the global South and North and explores the complex issues of intersectionality that arise for women with disabilities Indigenous peoples with disabilities and people with diverse disabilities Its participatory methodology calling for the inclusion of people with disabilities in processes that involve them and its local and international perspective make this book a critical contribution to the fields of rights monitoring and disability studies Appropriate for courses on disability human rights social justice policy and advocacy this volume serves as a guide and learning tool for anyone interested in disability rights monitoring and more generally the effective practice of monitoring human rights
