Monocacy Alfred Seelye Roe,1894 The Era of the Civil War--1820-1876 Louise A. Arnold-Friend,US Army Military History Institute,1982 The Era of the Civil War--1820-1876 US Army Military History Research Collection,1974

Civil War Day by Day E.B. Long,2012-06-06 In all the vast collection of books on the American Civil War there is no book like this one says Bruce Catton Never before has such a stunning body of facts dealing with the war been gathered together in one place and presented in a coherent useful day by day narrative And never before have statistics revealed human suffering of such heroic and tragic magnitude The text begins in November 1860 and ends with the conclusion of hostilities in May 1865 and the start of reconstruction It is designed to furnish the reader not only with information but to tell a story Here in addition to the momentous events that are a familiar part of our history the daily entries recount innumerable lesser military actions as well as some of the other activities and thoughts of men great and unknown engaged in America s most costly war May 5 1864 a private in the Army of Northern Virginia writes at the beginning of the Battle of the Wilderness It is a beautiful spring day on which all this bloody work is being done May 6 1864 Gen Lee rides among his men and is shouted to the rear by his protective troops April 30 1864 Joe David five year old son of the Confederate President dies after a fall from the high veranda of the White House in Richmond April 14 1865 President Lincoln s busy day includes a Cabinet meeting where he tells of his recurring dream of a ship moving with great rapidity toward a dark and indefinite shore that night Mr Lincoln attends a performance of a trifling comedy at Ford s Theatre Our American Cousin Sketches of War History, 1861-1865 Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. Ohio Commandery,1888 Special Bibliography ,1982 The Civil War Diary of Rev. James Sheeran, C.Ss.R. James B. Sheeran,2016-12-28 Here is the Civil War diary of Redemptorist priest Rev James Sheeran C Ss R who was chaplain to the 14th Louisiana Regiment of the Confederacy Irish born Sheeran was one of only two Catholic chaplains commissioned for the Confederacy who kept a journal From August 1 1862 through April 24 1865 the journal tells of all the major events of his life in abundant detail on the battle field in the hospitals and among Catholics and Protestants whom he encountered in local towns on the trains and in the course of his ministrations His ideological sympathies clearly rest with the Confederacy The tone is forthright even haughty but captures in sure and steady fashion both the personality of the man and the events to which he was a witness especially the major battles The journal is arguably the most unique narrative of the war written by a chaplain of any denomination and certainly is the most extensive Special Bibliography - US Army Military History Research Collection US Army Military History Research Collection,1974 Eyes of the Nation Vincent Virga,Alan Brinkley,Library of Congress,2004 A magnificent one volume pictorial and narrative history of the United States with more than five hundred exceptional illustrations many reproduced here for the first time Historic Sketches at Washington George Alfred Townsend,1877 The purpose of this book which was originally published at the beginning of the 20th century was to make Washington visible to voters so that they could be guided in criticism upon abuses such as have been related The course of the chapters is purposely made discursive so that the mind can be carried through a variety of scenes without flagging Sketches of War History, 1861-1865, 1992 History of Union and Middlesex Counties, New Jersey with Biographical Sketches of many of their Prominent Men W. Woodford Clayton, 2025-08-10 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Confederacy's Last Northern Offensive Steven Bernstein, 2014-01-10 By spring 1864 the administration of Abraham Lincoln was in serious trouble with mounting debt low morale and eroding political support As spring became summer a force of Confederate troops led by Lieutenant General Jubal Anderson Early marched north through the Shenandoah Valley and crossed the Potomac as Washington D C and Maryland lay nearly undefended This Civil War history explores what could have been a decisive Confederate victory and the reasons Early's invasion of Maryland stalled A history of the tenth regiment, Vermont volunteers, with biographical sketches of the officers who fell in battle, and a complete roster of all the officers and men connected with it Edwin Mortimer Haynes, 1870 Sketches of War History, 1861-1865: 1896-1903, 1992 Construction at Army Air Corps Posts United States. Congress. House. Committee on Military Affairs, 1929 HABS Historical Reports Historic American Buildings Survey/Historic American Engineering Record, 1991 Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Military Affairs, 1929 The Union Sixth Corps in the Shenandoah Valley, June-October 1864 Jack H. Lepa, 2016-11-19 During the summer and fall of 1864 Virginia's Shenandoah Valley was one of the most contested regions of the South Federal armies invaded the Valley three times twice they were repulsed This book describes the third campaign the supreme achievement of the Army of the Potomac's Sixth Corps One of the most respected units in the Federal Army the Sixth Corps formed the nucleus of the Federal force that spent several months competing for control of the Valley with a desperate Confederate army resulting in some of the toughest fighting of the war Following victories at Winchester and Fisher's Hill the Sixth Corps campaign culminated with a remarkable stand that stopped the attacking enemy and turned what began as a disastrous defeat into a spectacular victory at Cedar Creek The Bivouac and the Battlefield, Or, Campaign Sketches in Virginia and Maryland George Freeman Noyes, 1863
