Edwards, 2014-05-22 The events I am about to relate took place more than fifty years ago I am a white haired old woman now and I was then a little girl scarce ten years of age but those times and the places and people associated with them seem in truth to lie nearer my memory than the times and people of to day Trivial incidents which if they had happened yesterday would be forgotten come back upon me sometimes with all the vivid detail of a photograph and words unheeded many a year ago start out like the handwriting on the wall in sudden characters of fire But this is no new experience As age creeps on we all have the same tale to tell The days of our youth are those we remember best and most fondly and even the sorrows of that bygone time become pleasures in the retrospect Of my own solitary childhood I retain the keenest recollection as the following pages will show
