Legends, Monsters, or Serial Murderers? Dirk C. Gibson, 2012-02-14 Covering figures ranging from Catherine Monvoisin to Vlad the Impaler and describing murders committed in ancient aristocracies to those attributed to vampires witches and werewolves this book documents the historic reality of serial murder The majority of serial murder studies support the consensus that serial murder is essentially an American crime a flawed assumption as the United States has existed for less than 250 years What is far more likely is that the perverse urge to repeatedly and intentionally kill has existed throughout human history and that a substantial percentage of serial murders throughout ancient times the middle ages and the pre modern era were attributed to imaginative surrogate explanations dragons demons vampires werewolves and witches Legends Monsters or Serial Murderers The Real Story Behind an Ancient Crime dispels the interrelated misconceptions that serial murder is an American crime and a relatively recent phenomenon making the novel argument that serial murder is a historic reality an unrecognized fact in ancient times Noted serial murderers such as the Roman Locuta The Poisoner Gilles De Rais of France a prolific serial killer of children Andres Bichel of Bavaria and Chinese aristocratic serial killer T zu Hsi are spotlighted This book provides a unique perspective that integrates supernatural interpretations of serial killing with the history of true crime reanimating mythic entities of horror stories and presenting them as real criminals

The Films of Bong Joon Ho Nam Lee, 2020-09-29 Bong Joon Ho won the Oscar for Best Director for Parasite 2019 which also won Best Picture the first foreign film to do so and two other Academy Awards Parasite was the first Korean film to win the Palme d'Or at Cannes These achievements mark a new career peak for the director who first achieved wide international acclaim with 2006's monster movie The Host and whose forays into English language film with Snowpiercer 2013 and Okja 2017 brought him further recognition As this timely book reveals even as Bong Joon Ho has emerged as an internationally known director his films still engage with distinctly Korean social and political contexts that may elude many Western viewers The Films of Bong Joon Ho demonstrates how he hybridizes Hollywood conventions with local realities in order to create a cinema that foregrounds the absurd cultural anomie Koreans have experienced in tandem with their rapid economic development Film critic and scholar Nam Lee explores how Bong subverts the structures of the genres he works within from the crime thriller to the sci-fi film in order to be truthful to Korean realities that often deny the reassurances of the happy Hollywood ending With detailed readings of Bong's films from Barking Dogs Never Bite 2000 through Parasite 2019 the book will give readers a new appreciation of this world class cinematic talent
