Literary Intermediality Maddalena Pennacchia Punzi, 2007 The increasing transfer of literary texts and of related writing reading processes from the printed page to analog and digital media and vice versa is the phenomenon under investigation in this book for which the term literary intermediality has been coined Literature is in transit i e travelling incessantly through mass media personal media and the internet with crucial effects both on the ways it is perceived by younger generations of users and on the ways it is devised by contemporary authors The literary text far from being restricted to printed media keeps moving across the whole media circuit thus acquiring at any stage a new temporary identity Based on the seminar

Intermediality and Literary Practices at the 7th ESSE Conference in 2004 the essays of this collection by scholars from both sides of the Atlantic focus on the seminar's common topics: cinema, theatre, postmodernism and new critical issues. Beyond Human Maryanne L. Leone, Shanna Lino, 2023-10-02. Chronicling sixteenth-century Spain to the present day, Beyond Human aims to decentre the human and acknowledge the material historicity of more than human nature. The book explores key questions relating to ecological equity, justice and responsibility within and beyond Spain in the Anthropocene. Examining relations between Iberian cultural practices, historical developments and ecological processes, Maryanne L. Leone, Shanna Lino and the contributors to this volume reveal the structures that uphold and dismantle the non-human/human dichotomy and nature/culture divide. The book critiques works from the Golden Age to the twenty-first century in a wide range of genres including comedia, royal treatises, agricultural reports, paintings, satirical essays, horror fiction and film, young adult and speculative literature, poetry, graphic novels and television series. The authors contend that Spanish cultural studies must expose the material historicity that entangles today's ecological crises and ecosocial injustices with previous future and contemporary entities. The book argues that this will require the simultaneous decentring of the human and of the Anthropocene as an ecocritical framework. By standardizing ecosocial analysis and widening avenues for ecopedagogical approaches, Beyond Human participates in the ecocentric transformation of Hispanic cultural studies.
