

A photograph of a Montessori classroom. The room is filled with wooden furniture, including low tables and chairs. There are many colorful toys and materials scattered around, such as blocks, beads, and small figurines. Large windows on the left side of the room let in natural light, creating a bright and airy atmosphere. The walls are decorated with various items, including a colorful poster and some hanging decorations. The overall scene depicts a typical Montessori environment designed for children's learning and play.
