Paths of Liberation Bakole Wa Ilunga, 2015-09-29 I was born in 1920 in a little country village in the former Belgian Congo I was eight years old at the time the day the first white man visited our isolated village He was a Catholic missionary It was through him and many other priests catechists and teachers that I came to know deeply Jesus Christ who has shown me the path of true liberation My people live in a situation of extreme underdevelopment wretchedness and exploitation My experience as a Christian and a pastor has taught me that our pastoral and evangelizing work should offer persons a total development rooted in the Good News of Jesus Christ One is not possible without the other This is what I have tried to explain in Paths of Liberation Of course too the path Jesus assigns us for the liberation of society from the evils that afflict it is not the shortest of paths It is not enough to make surface changes and the path leads through the heart of the human person which Jesus wishes to change And the human heart is not to be changed in a day But this longer path is also the most effective and the most realistic for only thus do we attack the evil in its roots Have we not found that at the core of all problems is always sin It is precisely from this sin in the human heart that Jesus liberates us by guiding us on the path of continual conversion and uncalculating love

Walking with God in the Twenty-First Century Martin L. Kaonga, 2018-04-25 The twenty first century has witnessed unprecedented and revolutionary scientific theological technological philosophical and sociocultural changes many of which have churned serious challenges to Christianity In the face of these challenges can a believer realistically walk with God Walking with God in the Twenty First Century examines the prospects of a devout Christian walking with God today and it addresses a number of questions that all Christians must consider Is Gods desire to walk with a devout Christian in the twenty first century an illusion What does it mean to walk with God What are the major challenges to practicing Christianity in this century How is the devil operating undercover to prevent believers from walking with God Can a Christian realistically live a life fully devoted to God in the twenty first century Are there any provisions for a committed believer to practice Christianity in this church age Pastors church leaders theology students and Christians of all stripes should consider these new challenges and seek out Gods answers In this way we can be equipped to walk with God in the most corrupt of environments becoming a true disciple of Christ with a deepened commitment to obey his commandments

The God Who Goes before You Timothy Paul Jones, Michael S. Wilder, 2018-10-01 The God Who Goes before You provides a foundation for the study of leadership that looks at the topic with both feet firmly planted in the whole counsel of Scripture
