Language Learning in Children Who Are Deaf and Hard of Hearing Susan R. Easterbrooks, 2021 Language Learning in Children who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing 2nd Edition Theory to Classroom Practice is the long awaited revision of the only textbook on primary language instruction written with classroom teachers of deaf and hard of hearing children TODs in mind It builds on the work of the previous version while providing the reader with access to the entire first version on a supplemental website An important feature of this book is that it describes four real TODs and demonstrates application of concepts discussed to the DHH children on their caseloads Up to date chapters on theory of language learning assessment and evidence based practice replace removed chapters Chapters on English and American Sign Language ASL structure and on the three major approaches listening and spoken language bilingual bimodal instruction and ASL instruction are updated The chapters on teaching vocabulary and morphosyntax how to ask and answer questions and writing language objectives for Individualized Education Plans IEPs are expanded DHH Specific examples of real cases are incorporated throughout the book Finally after a theoretical base of information on language instruction many of the chapter provide language teachers with specific examples of how to answer the question What should I do on Monday It avoids promotion of one or another philosophy presenting all and demonstrating the commonalities across classroom language instruction approaches for DHH children
