Patrick White And The Religious Imagination Arthurs Dream:

Patrick White and the Religious Imagination Michael Giffin,1999      Patrick White and the Religious Imagination Michael Giffin,1999 An overview of White s oeuvre which spans some twelve novels and almost 50 years from Happy Valley 1939 to Memoirs of Many in One 1986 The study suggests that White give each of his characters a particular imaginative horizon Primitive Jewish Christian and Classical and the author engages in close readings of the various novels exploring the way in which these given horizons relate or fail to relate to each other      Arthur's Dream Michael Giffin,1993      Patrick White and God Michael Giffin,2017-05-11 The novels of Australia s Nobel Laureate Patrick White 1912 1990 are a persistent commentary on Nietzsche s proclamation of God s death As White knew the proclamation was not about God s existence but about classical views of God it presented him with the impossible task of using language to describe what language cannot describe This has always been one of the more misunderstood aspects of his literary vision Because the announcement is often interpreted in antithetical ways atheistic theistic secular religious humanistic and fatalistic critics should gain a better understanding of what White was trying to achieve by comparing him with his post war contemporaries from England Scotland and Canada Iris Murdoch William Golding Muriel Spark and Robertson Davies After and because of the war these authors all commented on the consequences of God s death Along with White they worked with a shared pattern of tropes to explore the light and dark aspects of western consciousness and the civilization it has produced Where did the pattern come from Was it metaphysical or metapsychological These questions are complex as the pattern came from many sources simultaneously and synergistically but this book tackles these questions by describing that pattern

Arthur's Dream Michael Giffin,1996 Attempts to provides a framework and terminology for accessing the area of Patrick White s spirituality Uses a structuralist and post structuralist critical method that looks at the theological implications of modernity and postmodernity Includes indexes and bibliography Simultaneously published in hardcover and paperback Author is a priest in the Anglican Diocese of Sydney and teaches literature and theology at the University of Sydney

Otherness in the Novels of Patrick White Alma Budurlean,2009 The central argument of the thesis the representation and reception of otherness is followed throughout White s novels with the support of a complex critical instrumentarium made up of postcolonial theory reader response theory cultural critical frameworks alterity theory and narratology Otherness in its manifold representations is a main component of Patrick White s fiction It functions on several levels and this requires a deeper entanglement on the part of the reader The different levels previously referred to are embodied in the various Others who people White s novels ethnic Others as members of the Australian multicultural society and the Aborigines as colonial Others as well as gender Others who also play an important role in White s fictional world Reading Patrick White is an exercise in tolerance endurance and acceptance of alternatives But the efforts of the reader do not remain unrewarded In his endeavour to change what it meant to imagine Australia the writer broke down the barriers of what it meant to imagine otherness      Patrick White Beyond the Grave Ian Henderson, Anouk Lang, 2015-08-15 Patrick White 1912 1990 won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1973 and remains one of Australia's most celebrated writers In 2006 White's literary executor Barbara Mobbs released a highly significant collection of hitherto unpublished papers reviving mainstream and scholarly interest in his work Patrick White Beyond the Grave considers White's writing in light of the new findings acknowledging his homosexuality in relation to the development of his literary style examining the way he engages his readers and contextualizing his life and oeuvre in relation to London and to London life Thought provoking this collection of original essays represents the work of an outstanding list of White scholars from around the globe and will no doubt inspire further work on White from a rising generation of scholars of twentieth century literature beyond Australia      Reading Corporeality in Patrick White's Fiction Bridget Grogan, 2019-03-25 In Reading Corporeality in Patrick White's Fiction An Object Dictatorship of the Flesh Bridget Grogan combines theoretical explication textual comparison and close reading to argue that corporeality is central to Patrick White's fiction shaping the characterization style narrative trajectories and implicit philosophy of his novels and short stories Critics have often identified a radical disgust at play in White's writing claiming that it arises from a defining dualism that posits the purity of the disembodied spirit in relation to the pollution of the material world Grogan argues convincingly however that White's fiction is far more complex in its approach to the body Modeling ways in which Kristevan theory may be applied to modern fiction her close attention to White's recurring interest in physicality and abjection draws attention to his complex questioning of metaphysics and subjectivity thereby providing a fresh and compelling reading of this important world author      Iris Murdoch and Morality Anne Rowe, 2015-12-04 Iris Murdoch and Morality provides a close focus on moral issues in Murdoch's novels philosophy and theology It situates Murdoch within current theoretical debates and develops an understanding of her work as a crucial link between twentieth and twenty first century writing and theory      Nobel Laureates in Search of Identity and Integrity Anders Hallengren, 2004 In this collection of essays biographies and Nobel lectures ten Nobel Laureates from five continents give various and startling perspectives on current questions about modernity and tradition unity and diversity integration identity integrity gender and sexual roles in a multicultural world of change It is also a book on self confidence and presents different ways to self knowledge and cultural individuality Published in print for the first time these studies and penetrating observations on topical issues written by leading authors and intellectuals from many distant countries make up one of the most intriguing and engaging avowals of our time      Witnessing the Past Sigrun Meinig, 2004      Imagined Australia Renata Summo-O'Connell, 2009 From Terra Nullius to Land of Opportunities and Last Frontier the European dream has constructed and deconstructed Australia to feed its imagination of new societies At the same time Australia has over the last two centuries forged and re-invented its own liaisons with Europe arguably to carve out its identity From the arts to social sciences to society itself a complex dynamic has grown between the two continents in ways that invite study and discussion A transnational research group has begun its collective investigation project of which this first volume is the outcome The book is a substantial multidisciplinary collection of current research and offers critical perspectives on culture literature and history around themes at the heart of the Imagined Australia project The essays instigate reflection discovery and discussion of how reciprocal imagining between Australia and Europe has articulated itself and ways and dimensions in which a relationship between communities imagined and not has unfolded Imagination in an Age of Crisis Jason Goroncy, Rod Pattenden, 2022-06-01 This book explores the vital role of the imagination in today's complex climates cultural environmental political racial religious spiritual intellectual etc It asks What contribution do the arts make in a world facing the impacts of globalism climate change pandemics and losses of culture What wisdom and insight and orientation for birthing hope and action in the world do the arts offer to religious faith and to theological reflection These essays poems and short reflections written by art practitioners and academics from a diversity of cultures and religious traditions demonstrate the complex cross cultural nature of this conversation examining critical questions in dialogue with various art forms and practices and offering a way of understanding how the human imagination is formed sustained employed and expanded Marked by beauty and wonder as well as incisive critique it is a unique collection that brings unexpected voices into a global conversation about imagining human futures

The Representation of Dance in Australian Novels Melinda Jewell, 2011 This book is an analysis of the textual representation of dance in the Australian novel since the late 1890s It examines how the act of dance is variously portrayed how the word dance is used metaphorically to convey actual or imagined movement and how dance is written in a novelistic form The author employs a wide range of theoretical approaches including postcolonial studies theories concerned with class gender metaphor and dance and in particular Jung's concept of the shadow and theories concerned with vision Through these variegated approaches the study critiques the common view that dance is an expression of joie de vivre liberation transcendence order and beauty This text also probes issues concerned with the enactment of dance in Australia and abroad and contributes to an understanding of how dance is translated into literature It makes an important contribution because the study of dance in Australian literature has been minimal and this despite the reality that dance is prolific in Australian novels

Packing Death in Australian Literature Iris Ralph, 2020-11-16 Packing Death in Australian Literature Ecocides and Eco Sides addresses Australian Literature from ecocritical animal studies plant studies indigenous studies and posthumanist critical perspectives The book's main purpose is twofold to bring more sustained attention to environmental vegetal and animal rights issues past and present and to do that from within the discipline of literary studies Literary studies in Australia continue to reflect disinterest or not enough interest in critical engagements with the subjects of Australia's oldest extant environments and other beings beside humans Packing Death in Australian Literature Ecocides and Eco Sides foregrounds the vegetal and nonhuman animal populations and contours of Australian Literature Critical studies relied on in Packing Death in Australian Literature Ecocides and Eco Sides include books by CA Cranston and Robert Zeller Simon C Estok Bill Gammage Timothy Morton Bruce Pascoe Val Plumwood Kate Rigby John Ryan Wendy Wheeler and Cary Wolfe The selected literary texts include work by Merlinda Bobis Eric Yoshiaki Dando Nugi Garimara Francesca Rendle Short Patrick White and Evie Wyld     Religious Art in the Nineteenth Century in Europe and America Thomas Buser,2002     The Search for the Religious Ideal in Selected Works of José Castillo-Puche Martin Farrell,2000 An examination of the novels of Jose Luis Castillo Puche that specifically deal with the religious ideal and his experience of the religious seminary The study of the novels of the Trilogia de la Liberacion is preceded by an introduction which looks at the connection between the author s life and his literature and also certain features of narrative style     Musical Improvisation, Heidegger, and the Liturgy Andrew Cyprian Love,2003 This work locates musical improvisation within an ontological framework which is both scientific and Heideggerian and encompasses the whole Christian understanding of reality It deals with historical and cultural issues surrounding musical improvisation     Vocation in the Poetry of the Priest-poets George Herbert, Gerard Manley Hopkins, and R.S. Thomas Tim McKenzie,2003 This study examines the theme of vocation in the writing of three poets who were also priests George Herbert Gerard Manley Hopkins and R S Thomas Although their work spans four centuries each of these men addressed the vocational conflicts faced by all priest poets since the Reformation The a
