of the young men the middle class elite of five European countries France Germany England Spain and Italy to recreate the generational consciousness that united them as well as the unique national experience that made them different These were men born at the end of the nineteenth century when the world of reason was disintegrating into a world of irrationality They were destined to rule but their lives were interrupted by the greatest of wars leaving them searching for identity and historical continuity Wohl recaptures this search through novels poems autobiographies memoirs sociological treatises philosophical essays university lectures political speeches conversations when recorded letters personal notebooks and newspaper articles His book is a brilliant study of European mentalities both collective and individual Probing behind ideas to find the experience that inspired them Wohl illuminates in unexpected ways the origins of World War I and its impact on its participants His exploration of the consciousness of generational unity and the power of the generational bond enables him to place in a novel context the spread of pessimism and despair the waning of liberal and humanitarian values the rise of Communist and Fascist movements and the sudden eruption of violence in Europe s progressive countries between the two world wars

The Moor William Atkins, 2014-05-13 In this deeply personal journey across our nation s most forbidding and most mysterious terrain William Atkins takes the reader from south to north in search of the heart of this elusive landscape His account is both travelogue and natural history and an exploration of moorland s uniquely captivating position in our literature history and psyche Atkins may be a solitary wanderer across these vast expanses but his journey is full of encounters busy with the voices of the moors past and present murderers and monks smugglers and priests gamekeepers and ramblers miners and poets developers and environmentalists As he travels he shows us that the fierce landscapes we associate with Wuthering Heights and The Hound of the Baskervilles are far from being untouched wildernesses Daunting and defiant the moors echo with tales of a country and the people who live in it a mighty age old landscape standing steadfast against the passage of time
