Patterns for College Writing Professor Laurie G Kirszner, Professor Stephen R Mandell, 2009-10-21 Patterns for College Writing Laurie G. Kirszner, Stephen R. Mandell, 2009-01-05 Laurie Kirszner and Stephen Mandell best selling authors and experienced teachers know what works in the classroom They have a knack for picking just the right readings In Patterns for College Writing they provide students with exemplary rhetorical models and instructors with class tested selections The readings are a balance of classic and contemporary essays by writers such as Sandra Cisneros Deborah Tannen E B White and Henry Louis Gates Jr And with more examples of student writing than any other reader Patterns has always been an exceptional resource for students Patterns also has the most comprehensive coverage of the writing process in a rhetorical reader with a five chapter mini rhetoric the clearest explanations of the patterns of development and the most thorough support for students of any rhetorical reader With loads of exciting new readings and updated coverage of working with sources Patterns for College Writing helps students as no other book does There s a reason it is the best selling reader in the country Patterns for College Writing Laurie G. Kirszner, 1994 Engaging accessible readings and thorough rhetorical instruction have made Patterns for College Writing the best selling reader available Patterns focuses students on the kinds of writing they will be asked to do throughout their college careers Resources for Instructors Using Patterns for College Writing Laurie G. Kirszner, Stephen R. Mandell, 2012 Patterns for College Writing Laurie G. Kirszner, Stephen R. Mandell, 2023-09-21 The Writing Instructor , 1983 Readings in Writing Courses Richard C. Raymond, 2010-12-01 As the title suggests this six chapter book responds to a question which in Western culture goes back to Plato Aristotle Cicero and Quintilian namely What should rhetoric teachers ask their students to read Primarily historical the first two chapters trace conflicting answers to the question above focusing on two constructive results of the debate the re invention of rhetoric and writing as a discipline a coherent and growing body of knowledge and as a result the emergence of independent departments of writing free from departments of English free therefore to develop their own curriculum and to manage their own budgets Additionally the second chapter examines two destructive consequences of this debate the ban of literature from writing courses where students might profitably study both and as a result the often painful departmental splits which not only separate former colleagues but also cramp the pedagogy of those trained to teach both writing and literature More than a survey of key publications this chapter encourages readers to honor the discipline of rhetoric but to make a place for literature on their composition syllabi The next four chapters provide pedagogical support for these chief claims that literature can and should be taught in writing courses and that such readings need not distract students from the primary text their own writing On the contrary these readings motivate serious writing when students feel invited into a conversation on issues that touch their lives These pedagogical chapters then move entering professionals from the theoretical debate to the application of theory therefore the book would serve well professors of courses in composition theory particularly those who enjoy teaching the conflicts and preparing their graduate students to design assignments and courses that apply theories of learning reading and composing The SAGE Guide to Writing in Criminal Justice Research Methods Jennifer M. Allen, Steven Hougland, 2020-01-28 The SAGE Guide to Writing in Criminal Justice Research Methods equips students with transferable writing skills that can be applied across the field of criminal justice both academically and professionally Authors Jennifer M Allen and Steven Hougland interweave professional and applied writing academic writing and information literacy with the result being a stronger more confident writer researcher and student in criminal justice Focused on teaching students how to write in the academic setting while introducing them to a number of other writing tools specific to research methods such as writing literature reviews abstracts proposals and more The perfect companion for any criminal justice research methods course this brief text focuses on key topics that will benefit students in their classes and in the field

Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction Writing for Publication Mary Renck Jalongo, Olivia N. Saracho, 2016-05-24 This book offers systematic instruction and evidence based guidance to academic authors It demystifies scholarly writing and helps build both confidence and skill in aspiring and experienced authors The first part of the book focuses on the author's role writing's risks and rewards practical strategies for improving writing and ethical issues Part Two focuses on the most common writing tasks conference proposals practical articles research articles and books Each chapter is replete with specific examples templates to generate a first draft and checklists or rubrics for self evaluation The final section of the book counsels graduate students and professors on selecting the most promising projects generating multiple related yet distinctive publications from the same body of work and using writing as a tool for professional development Written by a team that represents outstanding teaching award winning writing and extensive editorial experience the book leads teacher scholar authors to replace the old publish or perish dictum with a different growth seeking orientation publish and flourish The SAGE Guide to Writing in Corrections Steven Hougland, Jennifer M. Allen, 2019-12-02 As part of the SAGE Guide to Writing series The SAGE Guide to Writing in Corrections 1e by Steven Hougland and Jennifer Allen focuses on teaching students how to write in the academic setting while introducing them to a number of other professional writings specific to the correctional profession such as the pre sentence investigation report contact sheets court status reports incident reports rehabilitation and therapy Covering correctional institutions as well as community corrections the goal is to interweave professional and technical writing academic writing and information literacy with the result being a stronger more confident report writer and student in corrections This text will be a concise supplemental writing book in courses focused on writing in the criminal justice discipline report writing or in introductory corrections courses It is part of a series of books on this topic that will span criminal justice policing corrections and research methods
