Paris, 2002-04 The goal of this book is to cull from the last NSF conference the best ideas about how children interact with objects through that interaction acquire new understandings attitudes and feelings Civilizing the Museum Elaine Heumann Gurian, 2006-05-17 Written over a thirty five year career the essays in Civilizing the Museum introduce students to the powerful sometimes contested and often unrealized notion that museums should welcome all because they house the collective memory of all Drawing on her experience working in and with museums in the US and throughout the world Author Elaine Heumann Gurian explores the possibilities for making museums more central and relevant to society The twenty two essays are organized around five main themes museum definitions civic responsibility and social service architectural spaces exhibitions spirituality and rationality And these themes address the elements that would make museums more inclusive such as exhibition technique space configurations the personality of the director the role of social service power sharing types of museums the need for emotion humour and spirituality Without abandoning the traditional museum processes Gurian shows how museums can honour tradition whilst embracing the new Enriched by her experience in groundbreaking museums Gurian has provided a book that provokes thought dialogue and action for students and professionals in the field to realize the inclusive potential of museums

Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today Joni Boyd Acuff, Laura Evans, 2014-07-08 Aimed at museum educators Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today seeks to marry museum and multicultural education theories It reveals how the union of these theories yields more equitable educational practices and guides museum educators to address misrepresentation exclusivity accessibility and educational inequality This contemporary text is directive it encourages museum educators to consider the critical multicultural education theoretical framework in their day to day functions in order to illuminate and combat shortcomings at the crux of museum education Museum Educators as Change Agents Inclusion versus Exclusion Collaboration with Diverse Audiences Responsive Pedagogy This book adopts a broad definition of multiculturalism which names not only race and ethnicity as concerns but also gender sexual orientation religion ability age and class While focusing on these various facets of identity the authors demonstrate how museums are social systems that should offer comprehensive diverse educational experiences not only through exhibitions but through other educational activities The authors pull from their own research and practical experiences which exemplify how museums have been and can be attentive to these areas of identity Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today is hopeful and inspiring as it identifies and commends the positive and effective practices that some museum educators have enacted in an effort to be inclusive Museum educators are at the front line interacting with the public on a daily basis Thus these educators can be the real vanguard of change modeling critical multicultural behavior and practices

Museums and Their Visitors Eilean Hooper-Greenhill, 2013-04-15 Museums are at a critical moment in their history In order to ensure survival into the next century museums and galleries must demonstrate their social relevance and use This means developing their public service functions through becoming more knowledgeable about the needs of their visitors and more adept at providing enjoyable and worthwhile experiences Museums and Their Visitors aims to help museums and galleries in this crucial task It examines the ways in which museums need to develop their communicative functions and with examples of case studies explains how to achieve best practice The special needs of a number of target audiences including schools families and people with disabilities are outlined and illustrated by examples of exhibition education and marketing policies The book looks in detail at the power of objects to inspire and stimulate and analyses the use of language in museums and galleries This is the first book to be written to guide museum and gallery staff in the development of provision for their visitors It will be of interest to students of museum heritage and leisure and tourism studies as well as to international museum professionals Learning Conversations in Museums Gaea Leinhardt, Kevin Crowley, Karen Knutson, 2003-01-30 Teach learn in non school settings such as museums is a topic of increasing interest to researchers in psych educ sci art soc stud cog sci and to specialists in museum educ This book fits nicely into a small but rapidly expanding market True Needs, True Partners ,1996

Professionalizing Practice. A Critical Look at Recent Practice in Museum Education Briley Rasmussen, 2017-07-05 Sponsored by the Museum Education Roundtable Museums: A Place to Work Jane R. Glaser, Artemis A. Zenetou, 2013-04-15 Surveying over thirty different positions in the museum profession this is the essential guide for anyone considering entering the field or a career change within it From exhibition designer to shop manager this comprehensive survey views the latest trends in museum work and the broad ranging technological advances that have been made For any professional in the field this is a crucially useful book for how to prepare look for and find jobs in the museum profession Museums in Motion Edward P. Alexander, Mary Alexander, 2008 In 1979 Edward P Alexander s Museums in Motion was hailed as a much needed addition to the museum literature In combining the history of museums since the eighteenth century with a detailed examination of the function of museums and museum workers in modern society it served as an essential resource for those seeking to enter to the museum profession and for established professionals looking for an expanded understanding of their own discipline Now Mary Alexander has produced a newly revised edition of the classic text bringing it the twenty first century with coverage of emerging trends resources and challenges New material also includes a discussion of the children s museum as a distinct type of institution and an exploration of the role computers play in both outreach and traditional in person visits Engaged Anthropology Michelle Hegmon, B. Sunday Eiselt, 2005-01-01 This collection of essays is based on the 2005 Society for American Archaeology symposium and presents research that epitomizes Richard I Ford s approach of engaged anthropology This transdisciplinary approach integrates archaeological research with perspectives from ethnography history and ecology and engages the anthropologist with Native partners and with socio natural landscapes Research papers largely focus on the U S Southwest but also consider other areas of North America issues related to museums collections and indigenous approaches to materials research Hot Topics, Public Culture, Museums Fiona Cameron, Lynda Kelly, 2020-05-22 Hot Topics Public Culture Museums engages the highly problematic and increasingly important issue of museums science centres their roles in contemporary societies their engagement with hot topics and their part in wider conversations in a networked public culture Hot topics such as homosexuality sexual and racial violence massacres drugs terrorism GMO foods H1N1 swine flu and climate change are now all part of museological culture The authors in this collection situate cultural institutions in an increasingly interconnected complex globalising and uncertain world and engage the why and how institutions might form part of activate conversations and action through discussions that theorise institutions in new ways to the very practical means in which institutions might engage their constituencies

Reinventing the Museum Gail Anderson, 2004-03-09 This reader brings together 35 seminal articles that reflect the museum world's ongoing conversation with itself and the public about what it means to be a museum one that is relevant and responsive to its constituents and always examining and reexamining its operations policies collections and programs In conjunction with the editor's introductory material and recommended additional readings these articles will help students grasp the essentials of the dialogue and guide them on where to turn for further details and developments The Objects of Experience Elizabeth Wood, Kiersten F Latham, 2016-06-16 This book explores human relationships to objects shows what museums can learn from them and offers practical tools and exercises for using objects to create richer visitor experiences

Museums and Communities Viv Golding, Jen Walklate, 2019-01-22 This volume presents seventeen essays critically reflecting on the collaborative work of the contemporary ethnographic museum with diverse communities It invites the reader to think about the roles and values of museums internationally particularly the wide range of creative approaches that can progress dialogue and intercultural understanding in an age of migration that is marked by division and distrust Against a troubling global background of prejudice and misunderstanding where elections are increasingly returning right wing governments this timely book considers the power of an inclusive and transformative museum space specifically the movements from static sites where knowledge is transmitted to passive audiences towards potential contact zones where diverse community voices and visibilities are raised and new knowledge's actively constructed Designing for the Museum Visitor Experience Tiina Roppola, 2013-03-05 Exhibition environments are enticingly complex spaces as facilitators of experience as free choice learning contexts as theaters of drama as encyclopedic warehouses of cultural and natural heritage as two three and four dimensional storytellers as sites for self actualizing leisure activity But how much do we really know about the moment by moment transactions that comprise the intricate experiences of visitors To strengthen the disciplinary knowledge base supporting exhibition design we must understand more about what goes on as people engage with the multifaceted communication environments that are contemporary exhibition spaces The in depth visitor centered research underlying this book offers nuanced understandings of the interface between visitors and exhibition environments Analysis of visitors meaning making accounts shows that the visitor experience is contingent upon four processes framing resonating channeling and broadening These processes are distinct yet mutually influencing Together they offer an evidence based conceptual framework for understanding visitors in exhibition spaces Museum educators designers interpreters curators researchers and evaluators will find this framework of value in both daily practice and future planning Designing for the
