Oduyoye, 2006-01-04 An outstanding collection of original essays most published here for the first time With Passion and Compassion provides the outlines of the common struggle of Third World women to forge their own liberative theology Protestant and Catholic these women from Asia Africa and Latin America explore the question of what it means to be a Christian and a woman in the Third World The contributors to With Passion and Compassion address traditional theological topics christology spirituality the Bible But they do so from the perspective that comes out of a struggle to overcome social and economic oppression Their reflections constitute a powerful statement of faith as well as a challenge to existing structures and thinking political and patriarchal Romans in Context D. V. Palmer, 2011-03-04 Using crucial chapters from Paul's magnum opus as points of theological departure Delano Palmer provides in depth discussion on important themes like the role of first century women in pastoral work and the nature and duration of spiritual endowments Romans in Context is divided into three parts Part one reviews the career and legacy of the apostle Paul against the backdrop of his cultural milieu and history Part two takes up the knotty problem of what exactly does the apostle mean by justification by faith in its exploration of the declarative demonstrative proposal of modern theologians The section also explores what Paul has to say concerning the status of the justified in Romans 5-8 It is the final section that wrestles with matters of spiritual gifts the role of female pastors as well as the apostle's best documented thoughts on Christian mission Journal of Hispanic/Latino Theology, 1999 Postcolonial Theology of Religions Jenny Daggars, 2013-07-18 This original and ambitious book considers the terms of engagement between Christian theology and other religious traditions beginning with criticism of Christian theology of religions as entangled with European colonial modernity Jenny Daggars covers recent efforts to disentangle Eurocentrism from the meeting of the religions and investigates new constructive possibilities arising in the postcolonial context In dialogue with Asian and feminist theologies she reflects on ways forward for relations between the religions and offers a particularist model for theology of religions standing within a classical Trinitarian framework The Quest for Biblical Servant Leadership KeumJu Jewel Hyun, Grace Y. May, Philomena Mwaura, Julius Kithinji, 2023-05-26 Improve your service While many claim to offer models of leadership suitable for contemporary society this book goes a notch higher by doing so through the prism of Jesus's servant leadership As the servant leader par excellence Jesus not only taught but demonstrated service by stooping down and washing his disciples feet This book distills the experience and wisdom of men and women who have practically benefited from Jesus's leadership Reflective of the global church all the authors speak of a servant leadership inspired by love honoring of God humble in approach and seeking the welfare of others without neglecting a healthy self regard Whether you work on site or remotely you will find the grist for robust leadership This book is a must read for theologians businesspeople educators students and Christian practitioners seeking to make a difference in our times Feminist Biblical Studies in the Twentieth Century Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, 2014-06-26 Chart the development of feminist approaches and theories of interpretation during the period when women first joined the ranks of biblical scholars This collection of essays on feminist biblical studies in the twentieth century seeks to explore four areas of inquiry demanding further investigation In the first section articles chart the beginnings and developments of feminist biblical studies as a conversation among feminists around the world The second section introduces reviews and discusses the hermeneutic religious spaces created by feminist biblical studies The third segment discusses academic methods of reading and interpretation that dismantle androcentric language and kyriarchal authority The fourth section returns to the first with work that transgresses academic boundaries in order to exemplify the transforming inspiring and institutionalizing feminist work that has been and is being done to change religious mindsets of domination and to enable women to engage in critical readings of the Bible Features Essays examine the rupture or break in the mainstream reception history of the Bible Exploration of the term feminism in different social cultural and theoretical religious locations Authors from around the world present research and future directions for research challenging the next generation of feminist interpreters

Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology

Pui-lan Kwok, 2005-01-01 The burgeoning field of postcolonial studies argues that most theology has been formed in dominant cultures laden intrinsically with imperializing structures An essential task facing theology is thus to decolonize the mind and free Christianity from colonizing bias and structures Here in this truly groundbreaking study highly respected feminist theologian Kwok Pui lan offers the first full length theological treatment of what it means to do postcolonial feminist theology She explains her methodological basis and explores several specific topics including Christology pluralism and creation

MY PHILOSOPHY

Adolfo Makuntima, 2014-02-19 This work consists of displaying some of the Essays I wrote during my studies in Theology It is really intended to help some students to debate my points of view and appreciate my sense of criticism

African Women's Theology, Gender Relations, and Family Systems Theory Mpyana Fulgence Nyengele, 2004 African women theologians have written extensively about problems in gender relations in African contexts identifying oppressive elements and their effects on women s self concept and status in the church family and society This book provides much needed pastoral theological attention and a response to the psychospiritual relational and sociocultural effects of gender injustice and marginalization of women It critically examines concepts methods and principles of family systems theory analyzes gender relations in African families and churches and develops a theology of pastoral care based on the Trinitarian concept of perichoresis that offers pastoral guidelines for effective pastoral counseling with women and men as well as recommendations for corrective and preventative care grounded in educational strategies The paradigm of pastoral care that emerges attends both to women affected by gender injustice and to the sociocultural norms that cause distress and perpetuate gender oppression Women, Presbyterianism and Patriarchy Isabel Apawo Phiri, 2007 This is the first book by a Malawian woman theologian First released in 1997 it won an honorable mention in the Noma Award for Publishing in Africa in 1998 and is now updated here with a new introduction by the author The study traces the struggles and contribution of Chewa women to the Church of Central Africa Presbyterian Amongst the topics are female mediumships in traditional religion post missionary developments in Chigwirizano womens attempts to achieve some public manifestation of their personal relationship to God in open ministry and the current women s organisation in Nkhoma Synod Dr Isabel Apawo Phiri is in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at the University of Malawi The Historical Jesus Through Catholic and Jewish Eyes Leonard Greenspoon, Dennis Hamm, Bryan F. Le Beau, 2000-11-01 A collection of essays that examines the Galilean peasant named Jesus the historical understanding of him and what difference that makes from the perspective of Catholic and Jewish scholars Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity s theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine An Introduction to Theology in Africa and the Kpelelogical Foundations of Christian Theology Charles Amarkwei, 2021-10-12 In this book African Christian theology is introduced as a Kpelelogical reflection about life in the context of Africa which exists in the context of the cosmos Kpelelogy is the ontological mode of being grasped by the agape of God in Christ by grace through faith in the power of the Holy Spirit By this mode African theology is introduced by way of a definition a principle of paradox and a description as well as a critical view of the works of African theologians It examines the issues of method criteria and sources of doing theology in Africa and introduces the method of Kpelelogy as an African theological method This is explored further as a holistic theological method that is conscious of its being in existence and its life in history that is driven by faith in the triune God in a pneumatic experience that has been termed in this book as the Kpelelogical ontological mode. The book is ecumenical in view of its engagement with Christian tradition. It presents a Kpelelogical theology that is concretely African and universally Christian in the Okpelejen Wulormor, the cosmic Jesus Christ who is and was but beyond the munus triplex Priest, King, and Prophet, threefold office of Jesus Christ that is to come. Hence it is a theology which embraces elements of Reformed, Lutheran, Methodist, Pentecostal, Charismatic, Roman Catholic, and Eastern Orthodox theological insights in the African context.
