Early Imagery Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2023-12-22 Cézanne's Early Imagery by Mary Tompkins Lewis explores the lesser known but significant early works of Paul Cézanne bringing to light the rich cultural and artistic context of his first decade as a painter. While Cézanne's biographers have long emphasized his tumultuous early life marked by his friendship with Emile Zola, his rebellious nature, and his passionate yet crude persona, the actual paintings from this period have often been overshadowed. Lewis addresses this gap in Cézanne scholarship by examining how his early works reflect deep connections to both popular and artistic traditions, revealing a more nuanced and deliberate painter than previously recognized. Through detailed analysis of Cézanne's early subject pictures, Lewis moves beyond the conventional view of the artist as an impulsive romantic. Instead, she argues that his early paintings are stylistically and iconographically coherent, shaped by both his engagement with the old masters and his awareness of contemporary cultural currents. Highlighting the contributions of previous scholars such as Roger Fry and Meyer Schapiro, Lewis builds on their groundwork to offer a comprehensive reappraisal of Cézanne's early compositions. Ultimately, this study provides a deeper understanding of the young painter's creative process and the intellectual depth behind his bold, defiant imagery, enriching our appreciation of his role in modern art. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1989.

Walker Evans Svetlana Alpers, 2023-11-07 A magisterial study of celebrated photographer Walker Evans. Walker Evans (1903-1975) was a great American artist, photographing people and places in the United States in unforgettable ways. He is known for his work for the Farm Security Administration addressing the Great Depression, but what he actually saw was the diversity of people and the damage of the long Civil War. In Walker Evans, renowned art historian Svetlana Alpers explores how Evans made his distinctive photographs. Delving into a lavish selection of Evans's work, Alpers uncovers rich parallels between his creative approach and those of numerous literary and cultural figures, locating Evans within the wide context of a truly international circle. Alpers demonstrates that Evans's practice relied on his camera choices and willingness to edit multiple versions of a shot, as well as his keen eye and his distant, straight-on view of visual objects. Illustrating the vital role of Evans's dual love of text and images, Alpers places his writings in conversation with his photographs. She brings his techniques into dialogue with the work of a global cast of important artists, from Flaubert and Baudelaire to Elizabeth Bishop and William Faulkner, underscoring how Evans's travels abroad in such places as France and Cuba, along with his expansive literary and artistic tastes, informed his quintessentially American photographic style. A magisterial account of a great twentieth-century artist, Walker Evans urges us to look anew at the act of seeing the world, to reconsider how Evans saw his subjects, how he saw his photographs, and how we can see his images as if for the first time.
