Westerly ,2003 Whose ABC? Kenneth Stanley Inglis,2006 Whose ABC is Ken Inglis's long awaited political and cultural history of one of Australia's best loved institutions Combining in depth research interviews with the key players and a gift for story telling it is social history of the highest order Since 1983 the ABC has seen controversial managing directors David Hill Jonathan Shier come and go There have been fights over funding eight cents a day and charges of bias There have been both programming triumphs from Bananas in Pyjamas to Kath Kim and accusations of cowardice and dumbing down Whose ABC deals with all these events and more It seeks out the truth of events and breaks new ground The result is an unfailingly readable narrative that will be seen as a classic of Australian historical writing Australian Book Review ,2002

Beersheba Paul Daley,2009 The Battle of Beersheba a redeeming win for the ANZACs who lost at Gallipoli has slipped through the cracks of Australia's historical consciousness Why are Australians so much more content to commemorate a glorious defeat than we are to celebrate such a resounding against the odds victory A Memoir of the Rev. Massenkommunikation ,2002 Brackles : Memoirs of a Pioneer of Civil Aviation Frida H. Brackley,1952 More Than Just War Charles A. Jones,2013 This book raises questions about the just war tradition through a critical examination of its revival and by juxtaposing it with a literary phenomenology of war Recent public debate about war has leaned heavily on a just war tradition dating back many centuries This book examines the recent revival of that tradition in the United States and Britain arguing that it is less coherent and comprehensive as an approach to the ethical issues arising from war than is generally supposed and that it is inconsistent in important ways with the theology on which it was originally based A second line of criticism is mounted through close readings of modern texts in English from Britain Australia and the USA that together constitute a more subjective bottom up understanding of the moral dilemmas of military life In this second tradition the task of representing war is seen as more problematic and its rationality more questionable than in just war discourse Works by William Shakespeare Sir Walter Scott James Fennimore Cooper Stephen Crane John Buchan Robert Louis Stevenson Joseph Conrad Tim O'Brien and Kurt Vonnegut are featured The book will be of great interest to students and scholars of security studies military studies theology and international relations
