Kornhauser, Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art, Wadsworth Atheneum, 2001-01-01 Shortly before Gauguin made his first Tahitian journey in 1891 he spent nearly two years in the remote Breton fishing village of Le Pouldu Seeking creative isolation in a primitive setting he pursued his art accompanied by several followers One of them was the Dutch painter Meyer de Haan who was able to pay the living expenses in Le Pouldu and was also knowledgeable in literary and philosophical matters that fascinated Gauguin Their association resulted in some of Gauguin's most remarkable works including the Wadsworth Atheneum's symbolist portrait of de Haan inscribed Nirvana This and the rich variety of paintings and sculpture by Gauguin produced in 1889-90 are the focus of this beautiful book Gauguin and de Haan settled into an inn at Le Pouldu run by an attractive unwed mother named Marie Henry who began a liaison with de Haan despite the fact that he was a sickly hunchback The intensity of relations between Gauguin and de Haan is reflected in many of the works including frescoes which they installed in the inn Gauguin's time in Le Pouldu was crucial to the advancement of his art and the vivid Breton subjects and personality of Meyer de Haan remained in his imagination to reappear even during his later Tahitian period In this book several distinguished experts draw on previously unavailable sources to examine in depth the history of this period Gauguin's relationship with de Haan their interest in religion and exotic cultures and the meaning of the many innovative symbolist works they produced

Modern Theories of Art: From impressionism to Kandinsky Moshe Barasch,1990 In this volume the third in his classic series of texts surveying the history of art theory Moshe Barasch traces the hidden patterns and interlocking themes in the study of art from Impressionism to Abstract Art Barasch details the immense social changes in the creation presentation and reception of art which have set the history of art theory on a vertiginous new course the decreased relevance of workshops and art schools the replacement of the treatise by the critical review and the interrelation of new modes of scientific inquiry with artistic theory and praxis The consequent changes in the ways in which critics as well as artists conceptualized paintings and sculptures were radical marked by an obsession with intense immediate sensory experiences psychological reflection on the effects of art and a magnetic pull to the exotic and alien making for the most exciting and fertile period in the history of art criticism
