Regulation The Art of Raising Capital Darren Weeks, 2015-08-18 Darren Weeks

is Canada's most prominent financial educator. He is the Founder of the Fast Track Group of Companies, an acclaimed solutions-based financial literacy firm and one of the nation's fastest growing companies. For nearly a decade and a half, Darren has spoken to hundreds of thousands of people across North America, Europe, and Latin America about how to become financially independent. He is an advocate of learning how to create wealth through business and investment and believes that this vital knowledge is lacking from traditional education. In fact, in every country that he has spoken, Darren has seen that schools do not teach their students to manage money. Darren has made it his mission to fill that void by providing financial education to people across the world. He went from an average middle class upbringing to raising hundreds of millions of dollars in investor capital, owning nearly 5,000 real estate properties, millions of dollars in energy assets, and acquiring two cruise ship terminals in the Caribbean. All of this was accomplished by educating himself on how to do it and then taking action. There is no greater expert on the art of raising capital from investors and no person more committed to sharing this information than Darren Weeks.

Raising Capital Keith Herndon, 2007. This book is a compilation of a dozen interviews with experts in the business of raising capital. The book is intended to provide entrepreneurs with insight and advice about the process of raising capital. Darrell Glasco, Silicon Valley Venture Capital Manager, says the issue isn't finding capital; it's finding a good company to put the capital in, he said. And serial entrepreneur Jim Stratigos, CEO of Jacket Micro Devices, tells entrepreneurs you have to ask yourself if you are ready to be an entrepreneur. Are you ready to devote the time it's going to take to do it? This means making your company the center point of your life for several years. Entrepreneurs reading the advice contained in this compilation of interviews will understand how funding professionals think and can use that insight to better position their businesses to attract capital investment.

Risk and Financial Management in Construction Simon A. Burtonshaw-Gunn, 2009. The book covers Risk Management, describing the tools and methods to reduce the occurrence and consequences of risk, and the financial management of construction projects from raising funding to contract strategy and through to estimating, budgeting, and cost control. It includes a chapter covering international project risk, bringing together the issues of risk management, prime contracting, and PFI funding for construction projects undertaken away from the contractors' main home market.
