Raleigh A Pictorial History:

Raleigh Steven Stolpen,1977 Raleigh Memories ,2018 Handbook of the Linguistic Atlas of the Middle and South Atlantic States William A. Kretzschmar,William A. Kretzschmar Jr.,1993-09-15 Who uses skeeter hawk snake doctor and dragonfly to refer to the same insect Who says gum band instead of rubber band The answers can be found in the Linguistic Atlas of the Middle and South Atlantic States LAMSAS the largest single survey of regional and social differences in spoken American English It covers the region from New York state to northern Florida and from the coastline to the borders of Ohio and Kentucky Through interviews with nearly twelve hundred people conducted during the 1930s and 1940s the LAMSAS mapped regional variations in vocabulary grammar and pronunciation at a time when population movements were more limited than they are today thus providing a unique look at the correspondence of language and settlement patterns This handbook is an essential guide to the LAMSAS project laying out its history and describing its scope and methodology In addition the handbook reveals biographical information about the informants and social histories of the communities in which they lived including primary settlement areas of the original colonies Dialectologists will rely on it for understanding the LAMSAS and historians will find it valuable for its original historical research Since much of the LAMSAS questionnaire concerns rural terms the data collected from the interviews can pinpoint such language differences as those between areas of plantation and small farm agriculture For example LAMSAS reveals that two waves of settlement through the Appalachians created two distinct speech types Settlers coming into Georgia and other parts of the Upper South through the Shenandoah Valley and on to the western side of the mountain range had a Pennsylvania influenced dialect and were typically small farmers Those who settled the Deep South in the rich lowlands and plateaus tended to be plantation farmers from Virginia and the Carolinas who retained the vocabulary and speech patterns of coastal areas With these revealing findings the LAMSAS represents a benchmark study of the English language and this handbook is an indispensable guide to its riches On the Grid Scott Huler,2010-05-11 Turn on a switch and from the nearest bulb out pours light from somewhere turn on a faucet and water appears Wires pipes and roads support the lives we lead but the average person doesn't know where they go or even how they work In On the Grid Scott Huler takes the time to understand the systems that sustain our way of life starting from his own quarter of an acre in North Carolina and traveling as far as ancient Rome Each chapter follows one element of infrastructure back to its source Huler visits power plants watches new asphalt pavement being laid and traces a drop of water backward from the faucet to the Gulf of Mexico He reaches out to guides along the way both the workers who operate these systems and the people who plan them On the Grid brings infrastructure to life and details the ins and outs of our civilization with fascinating back to basics information about the systems we all depend on Raleigh and Wake County Firefighting Michael J. Legeros,2003-05-27 The story of firefighting in Raleigh and Wake County is almost as old as the county itself The terrifying threat to wooden structures with minimal water supplies was well known to the planners who laid out Wake County's first town in 1792. Wide streets were created to prevent fires from spreading between buildings. As early as 1802, citizens contributed to the purchase price of Raleigh's first fire engine. More than 200 years later, the dedicated members of 23 fire departments answer the still familiar cry of fire. Raleigh and Wake County firefighting chronicles over a century of fire protection in North Carolina's capital city and surrounding county. Fire engines, fire stations, and the firefighters themselves are depicted in over 220 images culled from local newspapers, area archives, and personal collections. From Raleigh to Cary and Apex to Zebulon, both municipal and rural fire departments are remembered from their early beginnings. Stories of fires at Raleigh's Yarborough Hotel in 1928, downtown Knightdale in 1940, and Pullen Hall at North Carolina State University in 1965 come alive as do dramatic photographs from the old Mangel's building fire, the North Raleigh tornado, and the flooding after Hurricane Fran. Publications ... North Carolina. City College. Library, 1878. Beckley Fran Klaus, 2012. A fork in the road was all Alfred Beckley found in 1836 when he arrived in a wilderness that was to be chartered as Beckley in 1850. Aptly named, Beckley means Becca's wood. or clearing. Farming and timbering were the primary occupations in Raleigh County until 1900 when coal became a major industry, bringing immigrants from Europe and the Deep South. Prosperity continued for half a century until the coal mines were worked out. Many miners moved to the Midwest where steel mills and factories were booming. Beckley struggled through the 1950s and 1960s. Then came the interstates which created tremendous growth in health care, banking, housing, education, shopping, restaurants, tourism, culture, and recreation. However, downtown became a vacant reminder of its nostalgic past as shopping centers took over. The 21st century has brought a new face to Beckley as it is rapidly becoming a government center. Cape Fear Lost Susan Taylor Block, 1999. Progress is a contradictory term, one that inherently means an improvement of luxury and an advancement of technology yet usually at the expense of a community's identity, traditions, and history. Though many buildings survived Civil War skirmishes and Northern occupation during Reconstruction, these same structures did not escape the plans of ambitious entrepreneurs and thus disappeared from Wilmington's landscape only to be replaced over time by shopping plazas and nationally recognizable commercial facades. Cape Fear Lost celebrates places that have vanished from present-day Wilmington. In this volume of more than 200 photographs, you will be able to explore the Wilmington of a bygone era, one punctuated by unpaved, tree-lined streets and architecturally diverse dwellings.

As you thumb through these pages you will experience firsthand the beauty of many former mansions scattered throughout the downtown area familiar churches civic buildings and schools that once dotted the cityscape the many businesses that utilized the pedestrian horse and wagon and shipping traffic along Market Street and the transformation of Wrightsville Beach and Carolina Beach from humble summer bungalows into major tourist retreats These varied scenes allow you an extraordinary insight into this coastal community's changing character over the past century and a half The Biennial Report of the North Carolina Historical Commission North Carolina Historical Commission, 1934 More Than Petticoats: Remarkable North Carolina Women Scotti Cohn, 2012-01-24 More than Petticoats Remarkable North Carolina Women 2nd Edition celebrates the women who shaped the Tar Heel State Short illuminating biographies and archival photographs and paintings tell the stories of women from across the state who served as teachers writers entrepreneurs and artists Subject Catalog Library of Congress, "The" Historians' History of the World Henry Smith Williams, 1907 Cambridge Modern History Sir Adolphus William Ward, 1907 The Cambridge Modern History, 1903 The Cambridge Modern History Sir Adolphus William Ward, George Walter Prothero, Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, 1907
