Cowan's life provides a unique perspective on a century of environmental change with a critical message for the future. As the head and founder of the first university based wildlife department in Canada Ian McTaggart Cowan revolutionized the way North Americans understood the natural world and students flocked into his classrooms to hear his brilliant entertaining lectures regarding the new science of ecology. His television programs in the 1950s and 60s Fur and Feathers, The Web of Life and The Living Sea made him a household name around the world. He was also responsible for hiring a young David Suzuki who followed in his nature show host footsteps. McCardell's ghostly narrator explains how Victoria became BC's capital spoiler it's all because Governor James Douglas couldn't stand waiting for a ferry how Gassy Jack gave birth to Vancouver by running a beloved saloon and more importantly how gassy he really was and much much more. As the thousands who follow McCardell's long running human interest features on the evening news know he has a fascination with the provincial past as well as an uncanny ability to unearth captivating and forgotten stories. Richly illustrated with archival photos AND ghostly doodles Haunting British Columbia is as fun to read as it is a revealing tour of what really happened in those bygone days. And it's all true well almost.
