sense of humour was overflowing his hand was comparatively untrained that with his keen eye for the grotesque he turned his back upon much that was beautiful about him that his sense of the fitness of things of the requirements of composition and the like were in embryo so to speak About Henry Blackburn the Author Caldecott s output however ranged wider than this he illustrated novels and accounts of foreign travel made humorous drawings depicting hunting and fashionable life drew cartoons and he made sketches of the Houses of Parliament inside and out and exhibited sculptures and paintings in oil and watercolour in the Royal Academy and galleries In the year that he left school 1861 he first had a drawing published it was a sketch of a disastrous fire at the Queens Railway Hotel in Chester and it appeared in the Illustrated London News together with his account of the blaze
