The Third Spaces of Digital Religion Nabil

Echchaibi, Stewart M. Hoover, 2023-03-02 This exciting volume explores how religious meaning is generated and performed in our present digital media ecosystem It uses the spatial metaphor of a third space to visualize the mobility of everyday religion and to explore the dynamic ways in which contemporary subjects imagine produce and navigate new religious and spiritual places Comprised of seven original essays this book provides a rigorous discussion of the complex intersections of the digital and religion demonstrating how third spaces of religion stand out by virtue of their in betweenness They exist between private and public between institution and individual between authority and individual autonomy between large media framings and individual pro sumption and between local and translocal Including probing analysis of how Muslim Catholic and Neo Pagan identities are cultivated and developed online case studies reflect on the creative outcomes of this condition of in betweenness and the emergence of other places of religious and spiritual meaning Blending theoretical analysis with grounded empirical research this book is essential reading for students and scholars of contemporary religion media and religion sociology of religion religion and popular culture REASONING WITH THE WORLD'S VARIOUS RELIGIONS Edward D. Andrews, 2018-02-27 The Hibbert Journal Lawrence Pearsall Jacks, George Dawes Hicks, George Stephens Spinks, Lancelot Austin Garrard, H. L. Short, 1910 The Psychology of Religion and Spirituality Timothy Sisemore, 2016-01-11 The Psychology of Religion and Spirituality From the Inside Out by Timothy Sisemore provides and introduction to the field of the psychology of religion and spirituality utilizing a mixed method approach allowing persons of faith and one who is an atheist to give voice to their experience to supplement the quantitative research that has been done in the field This text honors the value of religion and spirituality in the lives of the majority of humans while acknowledging the weakness and problems that come with faith as well The Journal of Religion, 1927 Includes section Book reviews

Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives, Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study Pille Valk, Gerdien Bertram-Troost, Markus Friederici, Céline Béraud, 2009 Religion is on the European agenda again The secularisation paradigm has lost its explanatory power and the newly coined term post secularism is used to describe the realisation that in the current social transformation religion cannot be ignored any longer The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project REDCo is the abbreviation for Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries England Estonia France Germany The Netherlands Norway Russia and Spain The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education religious education sociology political science anthropology psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14 16 year age group in Europe see the ir relevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole The young respondents of the quantitative study are clearly aware that the diversity of religious and non religious worldviews

is the reality of the European contexts they have to manage within Most of them are convinced that religion must be addressed in schools as it is too important as factor in social life and for the coexistence of people from different cultural and religious backgrounds throughout Europe to be ignored

Living without God: A Multicultural Spectrum of Atheism
 Sanjit Chakraborty, Anway Mukhopadhyay, 2022-11-16 This book deals with the intricate issue of approaching atheism methodologically as well as conceptually from the perspective of cultural pluralism What does atheism mean in different cultural contexts Can this term be applied appropriately to different religious discourses which conceptualize God gods Goddess goddesses and also godlessness in hugely divergent ways Is my God the same as yours If not then how can your atheism be the same as mine In other words this volume raises the question Is it not high time that we proposed a comparative study of atheism s alongside that of religions rather than believing that atheism is centered in the Western experience Apart from answering these questions the book highlights the much needed focus on the philosophical negotiations between atheism theism and agnosticism The fine chapters collected here present pluralist negotiations with the notion of atheism and its ethical theological literary and scientific corollaries Previously published in Sophia Volume 60 issue 3 September 2021 Chapters Religious Conversion and Loss of Faith Cases of Personal Paradigm Shift and On Being an Infidel are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

The Spatial Turn Barney Warf, Santa Arias, 2008-09-18 Across the disciplines the study of space has undergone a profound and sustained transformation Space place mapping and geographical imaginations have become commonplace topics in a variety of analytical fields in part because globalization has accentuated the significance of location While this transformation has led to a renaissance in human geography it also has manifested itself in the humanities and other social sciences The purpose of this book is not to announce that space is significant which by now is well known but to explore how space is analyzed by a variety of disciplines to compare and contrast these approaches identify commonalities and explore how and why differences appear The volume includes works by 13 scholars from a variety of geographical regions and disciplines The chapters combine up to date literature reviews concerning the role of space in each discipline and several offer original empirical analyses Some chapters are concerned with Geography while others explore the role of space in contemporary Anthropology Sociology Religion Political Science Film and Cultural Studies The introduction surveys the development of the spatial turn across the fields under consideration Despite frequent reference to the spatial turn this is the first volume to explicitly address how theory and practice concerning space is used in a variety of fields from diverse conceptual perspectives This book will appeal to everyone conducting conceptual and theoretical research on space not simply in Geography but in related fields as well
