The Female Condition in the Novels of Gabonese Writer Sylvie Ntsame Paschal Kyiiripuo Kyoore, 2023-11-20 This book argues that Gabonese writer Sylvie Ntsame utilizes her novels to question certain patriarchal traditions and practices in African society such as polygyny that in certain contexts tend to silence the voice of the female Through engaging with feminist theories among other theoretical frameworks the author demonstrates how in some of Ntsame s novels the black female body is an object of voyeurism that reduces the women to eroticized exoticized Others The author further argues that Ntsame counters the dystopia of racism with a depiction of idealized love through an interracial relationship presented against the backdrop of stereotypes and myths that stifle such relationships Ntsame does this by going back to her cultural roots and calling for understanding between peoples of diverse ethnicities and cultures The book makes valuable contributions to the study of Gabonese women s writing in particular and African women s writing in general Women of Ice and Fire Anne Gjelsvik,Rikke Schubart,2016-04-07 of the countries that have experienced the cultural shock and bereavement and the physical and psychic trauma of colonial invasion The purpose of this volume is to qualify the difference one is faced with when a postcolonial ex centric text is addressed by collecting essays concerned with writers from Southern Africa the Caribbean Australia the Indian subcontinent and Asian diaspora s While giving contextual specifics their due it shows how the theme of alienation when perceived through the anamorphic lens of madness is magnified and charged with an excruciatingly questioning and destabilizing power laying bare political as well as existential and moral urges From the ex centric broadly exilic position it is the ideology and practice of colonialism that demand to be rubricated as psychopathology More broadly as these essays highlight in fiction the mad character s ex centric vision is a continuous warning against the temptation to believe in those discourses that pass themselves off as reflecting the given natural order of things
