A Doctor Across Borders Alexander Cameron-Smith, 2019-02-28 In his day Raphael Cilento was one of the most prominent and controversial figures in Australian medicine As a senior medical officer in the Commonwealth and Queensland governments he was an active participant in public health reform during the inter war years and is best known for his vocal engagement with public discourse on the relationship between hygiene race and Australian nationhood Yet Cilento's work on tropical hygiene and social welfare ranged beyond Australia especially when he served as a colonial medical officer in British Malaya and in the Mandated Territory of New Guinea He also worked with the League of Nations Health Organization in the Pacific Islands and oversaw international social welfare programs for the United Nations On one level this professional mobility allowed ideas and practices of public health and government to circulate between colonial spaces of northern Australia the Pacific Islands and Asia On another it meant that Cilento's Pacific colonialism and colonial experience shaped his understanding of Australian national health and welfare Rather than attempt a comprehensive biography of Cilento this book instead uses this border crossing career as a means to explore several material and discursive facets of Australia's relationships to the Pacific and the world

Mother's Daughter Nadia Wheatley, 2018-07-02 Why didn't you and Daddy want people to give you any wedding presents I used to ask But my mother could never be drawn into talking about the wedding Later I assumed it was because she did not wish to be reminded of the ghastly mistake she had made in marrying my father Born in Australia in 1949 author Nadia Wheatley grew up with a sense of the mystery of her parents marriage Caught in the crossfire between an independent woman and a controlling man the child became a player in the deadly game Was she her mother's daughter or her father's creature After her mother's death the ten year old began writing down the stories her mother had told her of a Cinderella like childhood followed by an escape into a career as an army nurse in Palestine and Greece and as an aid worker in the refugee camps of post war Germany Some fifty years later the finished memoir is not only a loving tribute but an investigation of the bewildering processes of memory itself Nadia Wheatley is an Australian writer whose publications range from biography and history to fiction and picture books Her biography The Life and Myth of Charmian Clift was the Age Book of the Year Non fiction and is the only biography to have won the Australian History Prize NSW Premier's History Awards One of the greatest Australian biographies a work which never confuses itself with fiction but which has the same readability and flair and command of tempo It's a hell of a story Peter Craven Sydney Morning Herald on The Life and Myth of Charmian Clift Outstanding a rare feat in Australian literary biography Weekend Australian on The Life and Myth of Charmian Clift An important addition to the history of Australian social life and a vivid insight into how individual people can be controlled by repressive social attitudes Wheatley reminds us of the difference between how family life is supposed to be and how it is actually experienced Inside Story In a moving and beautifully written memoir Wheatley brings to life her mother's adventures My bet is that this fascinating book will prove to be an award winner Highly recommended Courier Mail Her Mother's Daughter is one of the most devastating examples of gaslighting that I have ever read It is not only a beautiful rendering of an ordinary life it is also a significant social history of wartime Europe and post war Australia Australian Her Mother's Daughter is a great read for two reasons Firstly it provides a thoughtful authentic sometimes exciting sometimes disturbing social history of the times And secondly with Wheatley's ability to write engaging narratives it makes for engrossing moving provocative reading I do recommend it Whispering Gums Global Exchanges Ludovic Tournès, Giles

Dortins,2018-12-05 The Lives of Stories traces three stories of Aboriginal settler friendships that intersect with the ways in which Australians remember founding national stories build narratives for cultural revival and work on reconciliation and self determination These three stories which are still being told with creativity and commitment by storytellers today are the story of James Morrill s adoption by Birri Gubba people and re adoption 17 years later into the new colony of Queensland the story of Bennelong and his relationship with Governor Phillip and the Sydney colonists and the story of friendship between Wiradjuri leader Windradyne and the Suttor family Each is an intimate story about people involved in relationships of goodwill care adoptive kinship and mutual learning across cultures and the strains of maintaining or relinquishing these bonds as they took part in the larger events that signified the colonisation of Aboriginal lands by the British Each is a story in which cross cultural understanding and misunderstanding are deeply embedded and in which the act of storytelling itself has always been an engagement in cross cultural relations The Lives of Stories reflects on the nature of story as part of our cultural inheritance and seeks to engage the reader in becoming more conscious of our own effect as history makers as we retell old stories with new meanings in the present and pass them on to new generations Quakers in the Israeli

Palestinian Conflict Nancy Gallagher,2007-09-01 The Israeli Palestinian conflict has resulted in the longest standing refugee crisis in the world today Based on new archival research and interviews with surviving participants this book considers one early effort to resolve that crisis while offering helpful lessons for current efforts at conflict resolution in the Middle East and elsewhere When war broke out in Palestine in 1948 the American Friends Service Committee AFSC a Quaker service organization had just won the Nobel Peace Prize for its peacemaking endeavors and its service to war refugees during the Second World War On the basis of that experience the United Nations invited the highly visible AFSC to provide humanitarian relief to Arab refugees in Gaza The AFSC also sent volunteers to work in Israel where they hoped to serve both Arabs and Jews Its long term goal was repatriation of the refugees and conciliation and coexistence between Israelis and Palestinians As eyewitnesses to some of the major events of the conflict the AFSC volunteers came to understand it better than most outsiders at the time By examining these early efforts at peacemaking and assistance historian Nancy Gallagher has uncovered essential insights for today s peacemakers human rights activists and humanitarian NGOs The 1960s in

Australia Shirleene Robinson,Julie Ustinoff,2012-01-17 The 1960s is one of the most heavily mythologised decades of the twentieth century More than 50 years on the era continues to capture the public s imagination The 1960s in Australia People Power and Politics recognises the complexity of social and cultural change by presenting a broad range of contributions that acknowledge an often overlooked fact that not everyone experienced the 1960s in the same way The diversity of the time is confirmed by contributions from a number of expert Australian historians who each provide an insight into Australia in the 1960s offering an understanding of the social realities of this period as well as the ebbs and flows of transnational influence This collection includes a featured contribution by prominent Australian historian Raymond Evans who provides a personal insight into the 1960s Other contributors also place the lived experience at the centre of their analysis by considering the growth of modern flats the impact of cosmopolitanism and sex and sexuality in the Sixties The book also highlights the way power was deployed and deconstructed during this era by considering the psychiatric profession the agenda of the counter culture and the role that women s magazines played in reinforcing dominant gender paradigms The complex politics of the era are also explored through the transnational impact of figures such as Anthony Crosland the impact of the Vietnam War and the multiplicity of motivations behind the anti war protest and the Aboriginal rights movement of the era The 1960s in Australia Power People and Politics is a fresh focus on a significant time in Australia s history It brings together a collection of innovative and engaging explorations into the Australian Sixties which underline the complexity of the time
