Rashaayda Bedouin Arab Pastoralists Of Eastern Sudan:

The Rashaayda Bedouin William Charles Young, 1996 A supplement to introductory anthropology and cultural anthropology courses this is the only available book length study of an Arab Bedouin society that supplements customary observations with data about gender and race This case study integrates cultural meanings with the pastoral economy in clear non technical language Drawing on the Bedouin notion of habitus the author points out connections between the cultural organization of space the sexual division of labor and gender identity giving students a strong model of the kind of analysis influential in contemporary anthropology Extensive pedagogy includes glossaries of Arabic terms and anthropological vocabulary a current bibliography diagrams of social relationships and maps and photographs

Images of Enchantment Sherifa Zuhur, 1998 This original and multidimensional book brings a refreshing new approach to the study of the arts of the Middle East By dealing in one volume with dance music painting and cinema as experienced and practiced not only within the Middle East but also abroad Images of Enchantment breaks down the artificial distinctions of form geography high and low art performer and artist that are so often used to delineate the subjects and processes of Middle Eastern artistic culture The eighteen essays in this book cover themes as diverse as Bedouin dance the music of Arab Americans cinema in Egypt and Iran Hollywood representations of the Middle East and contemporary Sudanese painting The contributions come from scholars and critics and from the artists themselves Together they present a wide ranging and holistic view of the arts in their social political anthropological and gender contexts Contributors Walter Armbrust Farida Ben Lyazid Kay Hardy Campbell Virginia Danielson Marjorie Franken Sondra Hale Carolee Kent Hamid Naficy Salwa Mikdadi Nashashibi Anne K Rasmussen Selim Sednaoui Simon Shaheen Rebecca Stone Cha bia Talal Karin Van Nieuwkerk William Young Sherifa Zuhur

The Animal Names of the Arab Ancestors William C. Young, 2024-02-06 In the Arab world people belong to kinship groups lineages and tribes Many lineages are named after animals birds and plants Why This survey evaluates five old explanations totemism emulation of predatory animals ancestor eponymy nicknaming and Bedouin proximity to nature It suggests a new hypothesis Bedouin tribes use animal names to obscure their internal cleavages Such tribes wax and wane as they attract and lose allies and clients they include attached elements as well as actual kin To prevent outsiders from spotting attached groups Bedouin tribes scatter non human names across their segments making it difficult to link any segment with a human ancestor Young s argument contributes to theories of tribal organization Arab identity onomastics and Near Eastern kinship

Pastoralists Philip Carl Salzman, 2018-02-13 Drawing upon the author s extensive field research among pastoral peoples in the Middle East India and the Mediterranean and on more than 30 years of comparative study of pastoralists around the world Pastoralists is an authoritative synthesis of the varieties of pastoral life At an ethnographic level the concise volume provides detailed analyses of divergent types of pastoral societies including segmentary tribes tribal chiefdoms and peasant pastoralists At the same time it addresses a set of substantive theoretical issues ecological and cultural variation equality and inequality hierarchy and the basis of power and state power and resistance The book validates pastoralists as a conceptual category even as it reveals the diversity of societies subsistence strategies and power arrangements subsumed by that term Introduction to Social Research Keith F Punch, 2005-04-23 Introduction to Social Research presents the essential elements of both qualitative and quantitative approaches for conducting empirical research in the social sciences

The Impoverishment of the African Red Sea Littoral, 1640-1945 Steven Serels, 2018-08-23 The African Red Sea Littoral currently divided between Sudan Eritrea Ethiopia and Djibouti is one of the poorest regions in the world But the pastoralist communities indigenous to this region were not always poor historically they had access to a variety of resources that allowed them to prosper in the harsh arid environment This access was mediated by a robust moral economy of pastoralism that acted as a social safety net Steven Serels charts the erosion of this moral economy a slow moving process that began during the Little Ice Age mega drought of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and continued through the devastating famines of the twentieth century By examining mass sedentarization after the Second World War as merely the latest manifestation of an inter generational environmental and economic crisis this book offers an innovative lens for understanding poverty in northeastern Africa

Violence in Islamic Thought from the Qur'an to the Mongols Robert Gleave, 2015-04-14 This volume brings together some of the leading researchers on early Islamic history and thought to study the legitimacy of violence

The Nubian Past David N. Edwards, 2004-07-29 This cutting edge synthesis of the archaeology of Nubia and Sudan from prehistory to the nineteenth century AD is the first major work on this area for over three decades Drawing on results of the latest research and developing new interpretive frameworks the area which has produced the most spectacular archaeology in sub Saharan Africa is examined here by an author with extensive experience in this field The geographical range of the book extends through the Nubian north the Middle Nile Basin and includes what has become the modern Sudan Using period based chapters the region s long term history is traced and a potential for a more broadly framed and inclusive historical archaeology of Sudan s more recent past is explored This text breaks new ground in its move beyond the Egyptocentric and more traditional culture histories of Nubia often isolated in Africanist research and it relocates the early civilizations and their archaeology within their Sudanic Africa context This is a captivating study of the area s history and will inform and enthral all students and researchers of Archaeology and Egyptology

Disrupting Territories Jörg Gertel, Richard Rottenburg, Sandra Calkins, 2014 Nowhere has a range of case studies of Sudan been brought together in a single volume Given the concern with the growing number and complexity of conflicts in Sudan and South Sudan there is a significant readership in academic circles and from those involved in humanitarian organisations of all kinds Professor Peter Woodward University of Reading A timely contribution to an important set of debates tackles questions emerging from discussions about modernisation urbanisation and globalisation from an explicitly local angle with regards to Sudan Dr Harry Verhoeven University of Oxford Sudan experiences one of the most severe fissures between society and territory in Africa Not only were its international borders redrawn when South Sudan separated in 2011 but conflicts continue to erupt over access to land territorial claims are challenged by local and international actors borders are contested contracts governing the privatization of resources are contentious and the legal entitlements to agricultural land are disputed Under these new dynamics of land grabbing and resource extraction fundamental relationships between people and land are being disrupted while land has become a global commodity for millions it still serves as a crucial reference for identity formation and constitutes their most important source of livelihood This book seeks to disentangle the emerging relationships between people and land in Sudan The first part focuses on the spatial impact of resource extracting economies foreign agricultural land acquisitions Chinese investments in oil production and competition between artisanal and industrial gold mining Detailed ethnographic case studies in the second part from Darfur South Kordofan Red Sea State Kassala Blue Nile and Khartoum State show how rural people experience their land vis vis the latest wave of privatization and commercialization of land rights J rg Gertel is Professor of Economic Geography at Leipzig University Richard Rottenburg is Chair of Anthropology at the University of Halle Sandra Calkins is a Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle

Karchmer,Dana E. Powell,2023-10-09 Born within and against the violence of European colonial conquest anthropology has aspired to understand the diversity of human experience in ethical and transformative ways The New Invitation to Anthropology is a fresh and accessible text that takes students to the heart of the discipline and reveals the ongoing relevance of anthropology today The New Invitation to Anthropology Fifth Edition has an intimate touch that invites students in and helps them understand the historical roots of anthropology and its connection to recent social and political issues Part I covers the history of the discipline the emergence of the concept of culture and ethnographic field methods in relation to European imperialism and discourses on race Part II illustrates how the concept of culture shaped specific domains of anthropological study including ecological adaptation social class gender family marriage religion and medicine As a timely and engaging non textbook The New Invitation to Anthropology explores anthropological perspectives on real world problems helping students think like anthropologists and become better citizens of the world New To This Edition Significantly revised Chapter 1 The Origins of North American Anthropology demonstrates how modern anthropology emerged out of 19th century theories of race and social evolutionism and develops critical understandings of modern forms of racism New sections on social class and globalization in Chapter 4 offer insights into the complexities of modern global problems like climate change New elaborations of intersectionality in Chapter 5 Sex Gender and Inequality reinforces discussions of gender based inequality Chapter 7 on religious experience now incorporates healing and medicine to expand a framework of studying belief and experience Pastoralists and Their Neighbors in Asia and Africa Kazunobu Ikeya, Elliot M. Fratkin, 2005 Daily Life of Women Colleen Boyett, H. Micheal Tarver, Mildred Diane Gleason, 2020-12-07 Indispensable for the student or researcher studying women's history this book draws upon a wide array of cultural settings and time periods in which women displayed agency by carrying out their daily economic familial artistic and religious obligations Since record keeping began history has been written by a relatively few elite men Insights into women's history are left to be gleaned by scholars who undertake careful readings of ancient literature examine archaeological artifacts and study popular culture such as folktales musical traditions and art For some historical periods and geographic regions this is the only way to develop some sense of what daily life might have been like for women in a particular time and place This reference explores the daily life of women across civilizations The work is organized in sections on different civilizations from around the world arranged chronologically Within each society the encyclopedia highlights the roles of women within five broad thematic categories the arts economics and work family and community life recreation and social customs and religious life Included are numerous sidebars containing additional information document excerpts images and suggestions for further reading Who Knows Tomorrow? Sandra Calkins, 2016-02-01 Although uncertainty is intertwined with all human activity plans and aspirations it is experienced differently at times it is obsessed over and at times it is ignored This ethnography shows how Rashaida in north eastern Sudan deal with unknowns from day to day unpredictability to life threatening dangers It argues that the amplification of uncertainty in some cases and its extenuation in others can be better understood by focusing on forms that can either hold the world together or invite doubt Uncertainty then need not be seen solely as a debilitating problem but also as an opportunity to create other futures
