Rated F Todd C. Noker, 2006-05-08 Noker's fictional satire not only pokes fun at censored videos but also lampoons current issues and turns political pundits into punch lines Kelsey Blackwell Salt Lake Magazine When the entrepreneurial owner of a struggling video rental store in Provo Utah offers R and PG rated movies with the sex violence and profanity edited out earning a new rating of F for Family his profits skyrocket Things take a dangerous turn when a customer known as Twitchy Guy brings in a box of old family movies demanding that his estranged wife be edited out The proposal seems extremely odd but the offered payment is too generous to refuse After much of the editing is done Twitchy Guy decides to delete his wife from his life literally Managing a video store swiftly leads to violence murder and too many people posing for too many cameras Rated F is an entertaining satire about political correctness gone too far
