Department of State,1992 The Fragmenting Force of Memory Norman Saadi Nikro,2012-04-25 This study is about experimental forms of cultural production that situate and work through personal experiences of the civil war in Lebanon It addresses selected works of literature autobiography and memoir by Jean Said Makdisi Rashid al Daif Elias Khoury and Mai Ghoussoub and the civil war trilogy of documentary films by Mohamed Soueid From a phenomenological hermeneutic perspective the book is concerned with how they give accounts of themselves as remnants leftovers and undigested remains of the civil war and of related trajectories of ideological attachment to symbolic mandates Constrained to reposition their sense of self from an agent of history to a casualty of history their acutely personal works of cultural production initiate an unraveling of both self and circumstance through the fragmenting force of memory Drawing on a broad range of phenomenological critical theory within the research fields of postcolonial memory psychoanalytic gender and literary studies attuned to subjectivity as a field of social production and exchange emphasis is given to how the writers and filmmaker employ a non presentist anachronic or paratactic register of memory to excavate both a historical understanding of self and related modalities of social viability This concerns how the symptomatic style of their work embodies and creatively and critically situates a refusal to package and normalize any idealized account of the war related assemblages of temporal succession or a presentation of self as discrete and omniscient Department of State News Letter United States. connections and moments of celebration alongside essays exploring the challenges of being LGBTQ and Arab From a military base in the Gulf to loving whispers caught between the bedsheets and from touring overseas as a drag queen to a concert in Cairo where the rainbow flag was raised to a crowd of thousands this collection celebrates the true colours of a vibrant Arab queer experience Through Middle Eastern Eyes Michael Parker, 2024-02-26 Kenneth E Bailey was both a missionary and a New Testament scholar As a missionary first in Egypt and later in Lebanon Israel Palestine and Cyprus he experienced firsthand the life of traditional Middle Eastern villagers which led him to the conclusion that the village culture he witnessed in the twentieth century had hardly changed since the first century Consequently he was able to reinterpret Jesus s parables and life experiences through this traditional culture In a remarkable series of acclaimed books which include The Cross and the Prodigal Jacob and the Prodigal and Jesus through Middle Eastern Eyes Bailey showed that Jesus was the first mind of the New Testament who used story and metaphor to challenge the leaders of his day in ways often unappreciated by contemporary readers This biography explains the origins of Bailey s key ideas and recounts his often fraught missionary career one that included the austere and the sometimes harsh life in the simple villages of Upper Egypt the perils of life in Beirut during the Lebanese Civil War 1975 1990 and being evacuated four times during the military conflicts in the region that made possible his groundbreaking insights into the New Testament The American Foreign Service Journal ,1928
